HOUSEHOLDS IN GOD'S SERVICE

In the ancient world, "household" was a wide-reaching concept. When Joshua today speaks of his household serving the Lord, he meant not just those people who lived inside his walls or those related to him by blood or marriage; he meant slaves or servants and their families, and anyone indebted to him in any way. Even his livestock and other possessions would be consecrated to service of God. In our world, we value allowing individuals their freedom to choose how they live, and wouldn't think of offering our pets to the service of God. But, as we discern our vocation as disciples baptized into Christ, we can come to realize how far-ranging the "households" of our lives still are: how we act toward our spouses, children, roommates or anyone we live with; our behavior with neighbors; or in public as we encounter many "strangers" every day in stores or traffic who suddenly are "next door" to us. How can we use our time, our resources, or gifts for selfless reasons rather than personal gain? No matter what life our witness to the Good News calls us to, we all have a "household" that must be consecrated to service of the Lord our God.

A MINUTE IN THE CHURCH

By: Gus Lloyd

"THE DEACON"

While only a priest can offer Mass, you may often see another man dressed in vestments assisting the priest....the deacon. There are a couple of easy ways to tell the difference between the priest and the deacon. The priest wears his stole around his neck, the deacon's stole is worn across the left shoulder and fastens on his right side. The deacon may also wear an outer garment that resembles the priest's chasuble. The deacon's outer garment is called a dalmatic and has sleeves. The main ministry of the deacon is one of service. The deacon, in Canada, is not paid for his ministry. He is there to assist bishops or priests in their ministry. At Mass, if a deacon is assisting, he will be the one to proclaim the Gospel. The deacon may also give the homily, prepare the altar for the Eucharist, help with the distribution of Holy Communion and cleansing of the vessels used at Mass. The deacon also calls the assembly to prayer, and offers the prayers of the faithful. In addition to his duties at Mass, the deacon can also baptize, officiate at marriages in the church when there is no Mass, and preside over funerals. When a deacon turns 70 years old, he can apply to the bishop for "senior status" in order to cut down on the time he spends with his ministries. Some deacons retire from active ministry, but they are ordained forever like a priest. A transitional deacon is a celibate man who is anticipating ordination for the priesthood. A permanent deacon is often, though not always, a married man who remains a deacon for life.

HOW DO I BECOME CATHOLIC?

RCIA-the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults is the Church's process for calling adults to a conversion of mind and heart and preparing them for a full and active life in the Church as disciples of Jesus. The process of becoming a mature Christian involves more than just learning about the faith of the Church. The RCIA aims to transform the entire person into an individual who has truly put on Christ Jesus. If you, or someone you know, are interested in becoming Catholic, please call the office @519-733-6591 asap for more info. RCIA begins this Fall.
