TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

By the year 800, when anointing was defined as the proper office of priests, very complicated rituals began to take shape. Perhaps this was to reassure the laity, who had memories of an earlier practice, that the new way was not only better, but impossible for a layperson to conduct. Blessings and sprinkling of holy water, the singing of as many as seven psalms, penance, anointing of all the senses, viaticum, all capped off by the clothing of the sick person in penitential garments, were part of the rite. This proved unwieldy, and creative spirits got to work. By the 1500s people made distinctions between visiting the sick, anointing, and viaticum.

The attempt of the Church to be faithful to the image of a healing Christ has some complicated history, including centuries when the celebration was rare. Most sick people had no access to the rites at all; only monastics or the well off had much hope of this care. Today, those unhappy days are long behind us, and the care of the sick is an essential task in every parish's life. As Christmas approaches almost everyone comes in contact with someone who is a candidate for pastoral care.

You live out the best of our tradition when you arrange for a sick person to receive Holy Communion or the sacrament of the sick and the consolation of regular contact with the faith community..

Dear Parishioners:

I take this opportunity to express my heartfelt thanks and appreciation to all of you who have remembered our pastoral staff and myself during this Christmas season. Your Christmas wishes by way of Christmas card, personal and monetary gifts, verbal greetings and spiritual offerings are most appreciated.

My thanks are extended to all those who support our parish cluster by way of your financial donations throughout the year, and the many ministries that you serve in and support as well—all of which are depended upon for the life and continued growth of the parish.

If you are a visitor or not a regular church attendee, we are happy that you are here with us. Never forget that Christ came for all and your presence in His house brings Him great joy. Come again!

May the new born King who came to bring peace on earth bring that peace to you and all your family members. As always, you and your loved ones (and deceased members) will have a special remembrance in my celebrations of the Eucharist during the Christmas season. Merry Christmas and Blessings in the New Year.

LIGHTING OF ADVENT WREATH

Family Prayer

Fourth Sunday of Advent

Advent is preparation to celebrate our oneness with God in Jesus. All four candles are lit. The final purple candle is lit after the pink candle to signify the darkest hours before dawn. Reflection: Our Lord is the King of glory, holy and powerful: He is the Son of God. Sent by the heavenly Father, He became the son of the virgin Mary, to lead us to joy and peace.

Let us ask our heavenly Father to bless us.

(All pause for a moment of silent prayer.)

Lord Jesus, Son of God,

our brother and our savior,

we praise you: help us to love and follow you each day.

We ask this blessing through Christ our Lord. Amen.
