Christmas Blessings and Thanks

Dear Parishioners,
I take this opportunity to express my thanks, and that of the pastoral team, for your many expressions of kindness shown over the Christmas season. Everything from your Christmas cards, personal and monetary gifts as well your verbal and spiritual offerings - all are greatly appreciated.
I also extend thanks and gratitude to all those who support our parish cluster by means of your financial donations and through your response to the many outreach programs of the parish (ie. the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, the Christmas giving appeal, the numerous special collections for crisis's that come up throughout the year). Your generosity of service and your gifts are greatly noticed and appreciated. Thank you!
A special note of thanks to all our ministers of the altar and music. If you are a regular attender, a visitor or a few times a year visitor, remember your are one of us and you are always welcome in the Lord's house. Christ came to bring peace on earth, bring that peace into your hearts and homes and those of all your family members. You and all your loved ones, living and deceased will be remembered in our celebrations of the Eucharist throughout this Christmas season.
Christmas Blessings, now and in the New Year.

Father Rick Janisse, Deacon Dennis Kosokowsky, Deacon Anthony Rebkowec, Dianne O'Neill and Staff
