TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

By the early 1950s some scholars were calling for the restoration of Communion of the faithful on Good Friday, since by then only a priest received, consuming the host from the Holy Thursday repository. In 1955 the new Good Friday liturgy was timed to begin at three o'clock everywhere, and included the option of Holy Communion, but without the Precious Blood that had originally been part of the liturgy. Today, there is increasing debate among theologians. Some feel that it would be better to fast from the Eucharist on Good Friday, focusing on the mystery of the cross and highlighting the Easter Communion. Others say that this Communion infuses the sadness of the day with awareness of Christ's victory. It is not a day of mourning, of course, and the Passion according to John grounds the liturgy in a sense of Christ's victory over death and the triumph of the cross. The tradition is rich and varied, and we are still in the early stages of recovering an ancient way of doing things.

Why do we call the day "good"? The English and Dutch languages share this name, and its origin stems from the name "God's Friday." The traditional name for the day in Latin is Feria VI in Parasceve, which translates as "The Sixth Day of the Week of Preparation." Other languages make do with "Holy Friday." In another part of England, as in Denmark, the people used to call it "Long Friday," a good description for a quiet day without work and no chance for play or a good meal!

WORLD MARRIAGE DAY TODAY

This weekend we celebrate World Marriage Day! Let's take time to pray for married couples, those discerning marriage, and for our spouses. Consider doing something special for a married couple this weekend to thank them for their vocation. For your spouses, do something special for each other this weekend to show your gratitude for your spouse and their YES to marriage! Your goal in this Vocation of Marriage should be to get your spouse to heaven. Take time to ponder in your heart how you can do that, beginning today.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter Celebrating "World Marriage Day-Feb. 12th" Prayer in Defense of Marriage

God our Father, we give you thanks for the gift of marriage; the bond of life and love, and the font of the family. The love of husband and wife enriches your Church with children, fills the world with a multitude of spiritual fruitfulness and service, and is the sign of the love of your Son, Jesus Christ, for His Church. The grace of Jesus flowed forth at Cana at the request of the Blessed Mother. May your Son, through the intercession of Mary, pour out upon us a new measure of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit as we join with all people of good will to promote and protect the unique beauty of marriage. May your Holy Spirit enlighten our society to treasure the heroic love of husband and wife, and guide our leaders to sustain and protect the singular place of mothers and fathers in the lives of their children. Father, we ask that our prayers be joined to those of the Virgin Mary, that your Word may transform our service so as to safeguard the incomparable splendor of marriage. We ask all these things through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Happy "60th"
Wedding Anniversary

May God continue to bless you as you live out beautifully the Sacrament of Marriage.

WORLD WIDE "MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER WEEKENDS"

Marriage Encounter weekends are a "marriage enrichment" weekend. It is meant for couples with good marriages who want to have a great marriage. It is not for problem marriages—that would be Retrouvaille. It does teach a method of communication that can be used long after the weekend. It would be a great "Valentine Gift" that would keep on giving. Please go to the website for more information.
