The Loud Silence of St. Joseph
Saint Joseph, while he never spoke a word in scripture, is one of the most beloved saints. His silent example of obedient faithfulness is a most needed example in our age of noise and confusion.

St. Joseph's silent trust in Divine Providence is a witness that rings louder than any words.

St. Joseph communicated Love. He was charged with the supreme honour of educating, instructing and guiding Jesus .

The Mother of God and the Incarnate Word Himself honoured St. Joseph's authority by their silence as being head of the Holy Family, to whom perfect obedience was due.

St. Joseph spent his mortal life in poverty and obscurity, living a modest, humble existence with the Holy Family which they embraced voluntarily .

St. Joseph seemed to disappear into the mission God gave him. St. Joseph's grace-filled life had him involved in a low profile, death-to-self immersion into the circumstances, which appeared ordinary to most, at the time. So that in this ordinary, God was accomplishing the extra ordinary.

Perhaps the silence of St. Joseph is his most profound witness.

"St. Joseph, I wish to belong entirely to you, so that through you I may belong entirely to Jesus and Mary"

Windsor-Essex Catholic District School Board Director's Annual Report— 2020

It features highlights of some of the great things that have happened across our school district over the past school year.

I am very proud of the way our staff, students, families and community partners came together in the midst of a number of challenges. At each turn, we adapted our approach and discovered new ways to teach and learn, to celebrate our achievements.

Throughout the entire journey, we never lost sight of our vision to build communities of faith, hope, and service, or our mission to know every student, to inspire them to follow the example of Jesus, and to empower them with the knowledge and skills they need to live purposeful, meaningful lives.

The Director's Annual Report to the Community for 2020 is now available for viewing online at Visit www.chalice.ca to donate.
