CHOOSE LOVE

Those who live in love live in God, 1 John 4:16

From the file entitled "It Ain't Gonna Happen," I pull and pose this suggestion. Let's make Christ's command a federal law. Everyone has to make God's love his or her home. Let it herewith be stated and hereby declared:

No person may walk out into the world to begin the day until he or she has stood beneath the cross to receive God's love.

Cabbies, Presidents, Preachers, Dentists, children, moms and dads and truck drivers. All required to linger at the fountain of His favour until all thirst is gone. Don't you ache for the change we'd see? Less honking and locking horns, more hugging and helping kids. We'd pass fewer judgments and more compliments. Forgiveness would skyrocket. Wild idea? I agree. God's love can't be legislated, but it can be chosen. Choose it, won't you? For Christ's sake, and yours, choose it.

Come thirsty

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Mark 1:29-39

Mark describes for us how Jesus' day begins and ends with taking care of others. He heals Simon's mother-in-law, he cures others who are sick, he drives out demons from those who are possessed. He comforts the downhearted and discouraged. The crowds follow Him wherever He goes. Even when He goes off to a lonely place to pray and be renewed, Jesus is tracked down by His disciples who say, "Everybody is looking for you!" Without complaint, Jesus responds at once by heading for the nearby villages to heal and preach and comfort.

Discussion Questions: When you are busy or tired, how do you respond to family members who want your help or attention? When you hear about people who are sick, lonely or discouraged, what do you do? How do you think today's Gospel might inspire you to be more like Jesus?
