GOSPEL REFLECTION

Matthew 5:13-16

Imagine a hamburger with nothing on it but some salt that proved to be chemically impure and tasteless. Imagine a house at midnight with one lamp, and that lamp is covered by a basket. Finally, imagine a disciple of Jesus who either does no good at all or hides his or her good deeds. In each example, something crucial is missing.

Jesus insists that our light must shine before others. He wants us to bring the brightness and flavor of God's word into our world.

Discussion Questions: There is a saying, "Charity begins at home, but it doesn't end there." It is wonderful to be good to those at home, and to others who love us. But what is Jesus asking us to do here? How can you and your family take the light of goodness and bring it out to your town, your city, your world?

A QUIET DAY OF REST

Remember to keep the Sabbath holy
Exodus 20:8

Ever feel the wheels of your life racing faster and faster as you speed past the people you love? Could you use a reminder on how to slow it all down?

If so, read what Jesus did during the last Sabbath of His life. Start in the Gospel of Matthew. Didn't find anything? Try Mark. Read what Mark recorded about the way Jesus spent the Sabbath. Nothing there either? Strange. What about Luke? What does Luke say? Not a reference to the day? Not a word about it? Well, try John. Surely John mentions the Sabbath. He doesn't? No reference? Hmmmm. Looks like Jesus was quiet that day.

"Wait a minute. That's it?" That's it. "You mean with one week left to live, Jesus observed the Sabbath?" As far as we can tell. "You mean with all those apostles to train and people to teach, He took a day to rest and worship?" Apparently so.

And the Angels Were Silent

Wonder why we make excuses (or don't feel the need to) for not coming to Church and think nothing of it? "Keep holy the Sabbath—spend an hour with me in worship and the rest of the day with your family." It's not much He asks of us.

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

Provides an opportunity to have someone accompany you on your spiritual journey. Spiritual Direction is holy listening. Do you long to be listened to in a safe, non-judgmental environment and to talk about any aspect of your life—blessings, struggles, losses, challenges...? Do you long to grow closer to God? A spiritual director can help you satisfy that longing and encourage you to explore a closer relationship with God.
