INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER
AND AWARENESS AGAINST HUMAN TRAFFICKING

*February 8, 2015-Feast Day of St. Josephine Bakhita
Prayer to End Trafficking*

God of freedom and love, we are saddened to know that more than one million people are trafficked into slavery each year. The effects of contemporary slavery are felt in every country around the world. As sisters and brothers, we are tormented by this reality that will leave devastating repercussions for generations to come. Our hearts grieve for what our minds can barely comprehend, particularly when we hear of women, men, and children who are deceived and transported to unknown places. We recognize this sexual and economic exploitation occurs because of human greed and profit. We are sorrowful and our spirits angry that human dignity is being degraded through deception and threats of force. Help the violators to be transformed and enlightened to realize the scope of their unjust actions. Allow them to see the value and the dignity of every human person. As a people in solidarity with God's poor, we must protest this atrocity and work against the demeaning practice of human trafficking. God of Life, strengthen those whose hearts have been broken and lives have been uprooted. Give us the light, grace, and courage to work with you so that we can all participate in the goodness of creation. Fill us with the wisdom and courage to stand in solidarity with the victims so that we may all enjoy the freedoms and rights which have their source in your Son, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

"Last rites" is a persistent but pesky phrase in the Catholic lexicon, and not a particularly useful phrase since it props open the door to misunderstanding. Many Catholics presume it refers to the anointing of the sick, yet there is nothing "last" about it. Clearly, the Church desires anointing to be celebrated fairly early on in the crisis of illness, and not as a last measure. The Rites for the Dying stand apart in the Church's plan, and include two principal rites. The first is viaticum, Latin for "food for the journey," the reception of Holy Communion by a dying person. Even very active and aware Catholics often do not realize that this "last rite" does not require a priest's presence, but can be conducted by a deacon or minister of Holy Communion.

The second "last rite" in the pastoral plan is a prayer called "Commendation of the Dying." Similarly, this does not require the presence of a priest, but can be led by any minister or family member. Too often, we have focused on what only a priest can do, namely anoint, and have forgotten the fullness of liturgical care that the Church desires for its dying faithful. The "last rites" are completely available to us even when a priest is not.

FREEDOM OF CONSCIENCE FOR PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS: DEADLINE FOR CONCERNS
DUE FEBRUARY 20TH, 2015

MESSAGE FROM BISHOP FABBRO

Last July there was a review conducted by the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario (CPSO). At that time, many parishioners responded with their concerns about the revision and its implications for the freedom of conscience of physicians. CPSO has announced that a revised draft policy has now been approved, with the new title "Professional Obligations and Human Rights". The College is seeking input from the public prior to the final approval of their policy. The revised draft raises serious ethical concerns about a physician's freedom of conscience. The policy would no longer protect physicians who refuse to make a referral if it violates their own conscience, when, for example, matters such as abortion, reproduction and end-of-life care (if euthanasia were ever legalized) are involved. You are encouraged to read the draft policy and make your concerns known to CPSO. The deadline for submissions is FEBRUARY 20, 2015, and can be made by going to http://policyconsult.cpso.ca/?page_id=5165

Submissions can also be mailed to:

COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE NEWS

We are beginning to create an email list of parishioners this weekend. The goal of this project is to strengthen and streamline the Parish's communications with you and the community. We invite those who use computers or smart phones to fill out the form in your pew with your e-mail address. Please print clearly including your first and last name. Place the form in the basket at the door as you exit. Thank you.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Mark 1:29-39

Mark describes for us how Jesus' day begins and ends with taking care of others. He heals Simon's mother-in-law, he cures others who are sick, he drives out demons from those who are possessed. He comforts the downhearted and discouraged. The crowds follow Him wherever He goes. Even when He goes off to a lonely place to pray and be renewed, Jesus is tracked down by His disciples who say, "Everybody is looking for you!" Without complaint, Jesus responds at once by heading for the nearby villages to heal and preach and comfort.

Discussion Questions: When you are busy or tired, how do you respond to family members who want your help or attention? Why is it sometimes hard for us to respond to others' needs? Who or what can remind us to be more loving and patient with other's around us?
