TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the 1560s, the Council of Trent attempted to standardize the widely variant customs for the pastoral care of the sick and dying. We had inherited a practice called "extreme unction," from the Latin words meaning anointing at the point of death. The deeper tradition, however, is about the prayer of faith that will heal and restore the sick person, and is straight from the Letter of James. The Fathers went back to the beginning, and while not discarding the "extreme unction" name, made a plea for the proper use of this sacrament. As soon as a person is in danger of death from sickness or old age, they reasoned, the time for the sacrament had already arrived.

As a result of this desire, the next ritual text for anointing contained an innovation: a rite for visiting the sick that included readings from scripture, psalms, and prayers. Old customs fade slowly, however, and the quality of pastoral care languished for centuries while people delayed the celebration of a consoling and effective sacrament, sometimes missing the opportunity completely. A priest ministering to a dying and unconscious patient alone in a room has never been the desire of the Church. Our tradition is far too rich for this sacrament to be celebrated in such a diminished and ungenerous manner.

THE WATERS OF BAPTISM

When new sod is put in, it needs constant saturation with water. Landscapers say that this "knits" the sod to the soil. The same when a branch is grafted onto a tree: the poultice that joins them at the splice must be kept wet at all times. Water is the stuff that binds the very cells of our bodies together. No wonder religions throughout all times and cultures have used it so prominently. When Jesus stepped into the Jordan for baptism, he "knit" himself to what had come before him. By going to the Jordan, he made himself one with the people of Israel who had crossed it into their Promised Land. With John the Baptist, Christ wove himself into the prophetic tradition that heralded the coming reign of God. He had become fully human in the waters of Mary's womb, and by partaking in the rite of the baptism of repentance, Jesus identified himself with our sinful, frail humanity. It is through the waters of baptism that Christ continues to graft new members onto his Body, the Church; through these waters we are cleansed from sin and filled with the promise of grace, given our destiny for eternal life. For us, as for Jesus, it is also the waters of baptism that inaugurate our mission to proclaim the Good News.

Leaving on a jet plane!

"In a little while you will not see me any more, and in a little while later you will see me." John 16:16

I thought I would borrow the words of Jesus, spoken to His disciples, as I prepare to leave for my two week January sojourn to the warmer climates. I know I leave everything in the capable hands of the pastoral staff and with Fr. Dick Cartier who will cover next weekend and Fr. O'Brien the next. Please check the bulletin for the Mass schedule and I will see you at the end of the month. Stay warm!
Fr. Rick

At the beginning of Mass I often say that it is a privilege to be with you.

That is true and more so as the years go on. It is now five years. I am grateful to Fr. Janisse and all the parishioners for allowing me to be with you to celebrate the Sacraments. Thank you for your prayers, good wishes, cards and gifts over Christmas. Please be assured of my prayers and good wishes for the New Year.

Fr. Michael O'Brien

POPE FRANCIS' SUGGESTED NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS

1. Don't gossip. It's one of our hobbies. Pope Francis says it's also one of the most evil activities. He denounces gossip as "murder".
2. Finish your meals. Wasting food is stealing from the poor.
3. Make time for others. The Pope seems too busy for anything else yet he calls up strangers and he sent a handwritten letter to a Jesuit he had never met.
4. Choose the 'more humble' purchase. Take it from the head of state who rides a 29 year old Renault. He warns against luxurious lives that seek "the joy of the world in the latest smartphone, the fastest car."
5. Meet the poor 'in the flesh'. Sure we donate to charity but that's not enough. Commitment to the poor, he says, must be "person to person, in the flesh".
6. Stop judging others. In the same way he denounces gossip, the Pope condemns prejudice.
7. Befriend those who disagree. What can we do to our worst critics? We can take our cue from the Pope.
8. Make commitments, such as marriage. Don't be afraid to say "forever".
9. Make a habit to 'ask the Lord.' Bothered about the future? Pray, the Pope urges us especially the youth.
10. Be happy. The true Christian, exudes great joy. The Christian sings to joy, and walks and carries this joy.
