Words of Encouragement

The apprehension of life after death was rather shaky in the Old Testament. It is a relatively late development in pre-Christian Judaism to think the dead went to any place more definite than "sheol", the rather murky "abode of the dead." We sometimes find in pre-Christian writings the general idea that virtue is the prelude, not to "eternal life", but to having your name live on in the hearts of others. Some people focused on the supreme good of eternal life and downplayed the idea of a good reputation. "Who cares if people remember me fondly?" I want to live forever!" But being remembered fondly and eternal life are not opposites. The saints are, among other things, those of "blessed memory", not only to mere people but also to God. To be remembered by God and to be cherished by Him for all eternity: this is eternal life. To be forgotten even by God: What could be more horrible? It was because God desires to forget none of us that He came for our salvation and remembered us each by name and because He knows us by name, He desires to make us participants in His life, not merely by "declaring us not guilty" but by making us truly virtuous. Today, ask for grace and practice virtue. You'll be remembered for it longer than you think!

GOSPEL REFLECTION

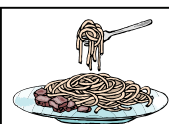

John 1:29-34

John the Baptist had the great honor of preparing the way for Jesus. Through John's preaching and baptizing, the people's hearts were ready for the coming of the Lamb of God. John had spent his entire life listening to God's word. And when Jesus, the Messiah, finally came, God helped John to recognize Him.

Discussion Questions: Very often we get so busy and noisy that God's voice is completely drowned out. We are not always prepared to recognize Jesus in our daily lives. What will you do to become a better listener?

New Year's Greetings!

On behalf of St. Peter's Seminary, the Institute for Catholic Formation, and everyone here at the St. Peter's Seminary Foundation, we would like to wish you all the best for 2011—health, happiness, prosperity.

This time of year is a time for reflection on the past and optimism for the future. 2010 was a year of many challenges and successes. Through the prayerful and generous support of people like you, St. Peter's Seminary was able to continue its mission of forming and educating the future servant-leaders of our church: priests, permanent deacons, lay ecclesial ministers, educators, and others.

Seminarian Cristino Bouvette is grateful for your ongoing stewardship and God willing is expected to be ordained a priest in the spring of next year.

He has prepared a thank you video that you can view by going to www.stpetersseminary.ca/support
