WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY 2016

January 18-25

During this week we join with people around the world to pray for Christian unity—in worship, reflection, study and fellowship. This year, we rejoice in the opportunity to pray with the Christians of Latvia. They call us to reflect on the mighty acts of God in our lives, and to find ways in which we can witness to these acts by working together for the unity of Christ's Church. Please pray together that we may be more fully united in the one Christ.

NEW SYRIAN REFUGEE SUPPORT OFFER

Following the Syrian Refugee update presentations a few weeks ago at Mass, I was approached and offered, by an anonymous donor that the amount of money collected would be matched dollar for dollar up to a total of $50,000. In other words, we collect $30,000 and it will be matched with another $30,000; $50,000 with another $50,000! A most generous offer and one that would definitely assure us of bringing our sponsored Refugee family into our clustered parishes if we reached the goal of $30,000. With this generous incentive, and your support, I am sure that we can reach our goal. Your prayers & financial support are greatly appreciated and we look forward to the upcoming weeks as we see our total collected rise. We can do it!

Fr. Rick

If you would like to donate an item for a raffle basket (NEW items only please) or other items such as gift certificates/gift cards of any kind or large prizes other than for baskets, they can be dropped off at the church office, Tuesday-Friday anytime between 9am and 4pm (closed between 12 and 1) or bring items to Mass and they can be left at St. John's (outside the office) or St. Anthony's at the back of the church.

SURPRISES

Life is full of surprises, some pleasant, some not. The scriptures are filled with stories of God's surprises cropping up when they are least expected: younger children obtaining the inheritance; the lowliest being seated highest up; an itinerant preacher, killed like a criminal, exalted to eternal, heavenly glory.

Anybody who has planned a wedding or similar event knows that they are filled with opportunities for surprises. For the bridegroom in today's Gospel story, who has no direct contact with Jesus, the pleasant surprise came because somebody else paid attention and had faith in Jesus.

We may think that the point of today's familiar story of the wedding at Cana is that when we have faith in Jesus, our lives will be pleasantly changed. A Christian, however, needs to have a broader perspective and realize that to have faith in Christ means that somebody's life—not necessarily our own—will be surprised for the better.

WORLD DAY OF IMMIGRANTS

"Migrants and Refugees Challenge Us. The Response of the Gospel of Mercy"

In our time, migration is growing worldwide. Refugees and people fleeing from their homes challenge our traditional ways of life and at times they upset the cultural and social horizons which they encounter. Increasingly, the victims of violence and poverty, leaving their homelands, and exploited by human traffickers during their journey towards the dream of a better future. The Gospel of mercy troubles our consciences and prevents us from taking the suffering of others for granted. Migrants are our brothers and sisters in search of a better life, far away from poverty, hunger, exploitation and unjust distribution of the planet's resources which are meant to be shared by all. Biblical revelation urges us to welcome the stranger and in so doing, we open our doors to God, and that in the faces of others we see the face of Christ Himself. The Church stands at the side of all who work to defend each person's right to live with dignity. This process should include the need to assist the countries which migrants and refugees leave. Welcoming others means welcoming God in person! I entrust you to the Virgin Mary, Mother of migrants and refugees, and to Saint Joseph, who experienced the bitterness of emigration to Egypt. To their intercession I commend those who invest so much energy, time and resources to the pastoral and social care of migrants. To all I cordially impart my Apostolic Blessing.
