TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

As a result of the reforms of the Second Vatican Council, the Church has defined a new pastoral plan for your care whenever you struggle with illness. There are rites for children, a communal rite for celebration in the parish, forms of care for the sick at each stage and transition, and for the desperately ill. There is a much broader interpretation of who may be anointed, including not only the visibly ill, but those battling addiction, or the elderly coping with the frustrating aches and pains of aging. Children under seven are normally not anointed, since the oil is associated with reconciliation. (For the same reason, they do not receive ashes on Ash Wednesday.) However, children close to that age who have a serious illness often gain a deep level of spiritual insight and maturity, and may benefit from catechesis for the Eucharist. Once admitted to confirmation and/or Eucharist, a sick child should be anointed. It is a great strength of our present rite that a section is included with prayers tailored to the experience and understanding of a child. Considering our recent history of being fairly sparing with this sacrament, the generosity of celebration today is helping us to retrieve an essential part of our tradition of reverence for the sick.

From Bishop Fabbro:

As you will recall, in preparation for the 2014 Extraordinary Synod on the Family, the Holy See provided a series of survey questions and invited a broad-based consultation. These questions were posted on the Diocese of London website in December of 2013. In response to this invitation, more than 340 participants completed the questionnaire or some part of it. In preparation for the 2015 Ordinary Synod of Bishops on "The Vocation and the Mission of the Family in the Church and in the Contemporary World", the Holy See is once again seeking the input of the whole Church. To this end, the Canadian Bishops are providing a series of survey questions that have been adapted for use in Canada. The consultation is seeking reflections on the reality in each diocese and concrete suggestions and best practices for pastoral action. I invite all parish leaders, Priests, Deacons, Lay Ecclesial Ministers and Parish Pastoral Council members, parents and those who assist families on their journey: teachers, principals, family counsellors and social workers as well as all parishioners, to complete this survey, which will be available online on the Diocese of London website, www.dol.ca, from January 16 to February 15, 2015.

For those wishing to complete the survey in French, please visit the website of the Canadian Bishops at www.cccb.ca.

COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE

The Communications Committee is a new committee in our parish which was created with the goal of helping the Parish revitalize, strengthen and streamline its communications with parishioners and the community. To do that, we are using a model developed by the Boston Diocese, where Cardinal Sean O'Malley has encouraged parishes to use the new social media – the Parish website, email, Facebook, Twitter, etc. – not only to inform parishioners of the Mass schedule, special events and meetings, but also to evangelize. The new forms of media will not replace our weekly Bulletin or the weekly announcements at Mass. We hope it will engage parishioners and others with the Parish and our faith.

You will receive on-going reports as we proceed with this work, which will involve the entire Parish community, the various committees, ministries, prayer groups and our schools.

In February, we will begin inviting all of you who use computers to subscribe to the Parish email service which will be used to distribute information about various events and occurrences in the Parish. We will be at each Mass on several weekends to provide information and answer any questions you may have.

This work will take time, but we believe it will help our Parish thrive in the 21st century and, if we do it well and cooperatively, it will reinvigorate our Parish life.
