THE SIGN OF PEACE AND FLU SEASON

The Sign of Peace is an ancient tradition where we greet one another in the Lord. Though it has functioned differently at different times in liturgical history, it consistently points to our belief in the Risen Lord and our full confidence in His power. During flu season or should there be another pandemic of sorts and if advised by local health officials, the Diocese of London will ask parishes to refrain temporarily from this practice. For now, use common sense, wash your hands, use hand-sanitizer when appropriate and if you are ill, please stay home, stay warm and stay well.

Canadian Catholic Organization For DEVELOPMENT & PEACE

Each year, Development and Peace runs two campaigns in solidarity with our partners and Church leaders in the Global South who are seeking justice for their communities. There is the Action Campaign and the Share Lent Appeal.

This year the Development and Peace (D&P) Action Campaign, along with other civil society groups across Canada, are calling on our Government for the creation of an Independent Ombudsman in Canada that would have the power to investigate, make public and make recommendations to remedy any violations caused by Canadian mining companies in the Global South.

In your bulletin last weekend, there was information regarding the disturbing impact that mining violations are having on the lives of the poor and on their environment... extra handouts are available beside this weekend's bulletin. Please read the material and discuss it with your family and friends.

Postcards that can be sent to our members of parliament will be handed out at all the Masses this weekend.

RETROUVAILLE

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Matthew 4:12-17

Once again the Gospel focuses on Jesus as the Promised One of the Old Testament. Jesus began His preaching in Galilee and is identified by Matthew as “the great light” foretold by Isaiah. Jesus’ first message to God’s people is a powerful one. He says that we should reform our lives, or repent, for “the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

Discussion Questions: A Jewish novelist once began one of his novels with the statement, “Beginnings are hard.” To repent, means to begin again. How can you make a new beginning today in some area of your life?

HEADS UP! SAVE THE DATES!

From March 29th-April 1st, Father Mickey Prieur will be preaching a Parish Mission for our cluster parishes. His theme will be “Hopeful News for Hard Things”. It will run from Sunday to Tuesday evening. You will not want to miss out, so book the time off now. Full details in the near future.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The prayers surrounding baptism often speak of being “clothed in Christ,” and clothes are an important consideration. In ancient times, adults were probably baptized without any clothes at all, and old texts survive asking people to leave fancy garb and jewelry behind as they enter the font. Baptism was typically in a private place, the community waited elsewhere, and the casting off of clothing was hardly a public moment, nor was it embarrassing in ancient cultures where privacy was largely unknown.

Nonetheless, what was left behind on one side of the font was replaced on the other as a white robe was wrapped around the newly baptized. It was a robe of honor, a dazzling sign of a new beginning for a society that valued clothing as a sign of personal identity. For the newly baptized, a whole week in white garments was the rule, through the second Sunday of Easter, called “Sunday in Albis,” because of all the folks wearing their baptismal robes.

DIVISION

It is a situation that plays itself out in more and less significant ways: Christians divided.

A CYO basketball game between two neighboring parishes. Parents of the young players scream insults and threats at one another and assert their “superiority.”

A Protestant and a Catholic church sit on adjoining properties. Each is vigilant about having parking violators removed from its own “private” parking lot.

An old pastor retires but continues to reside at the parish. A new pastor arrives and quickly finds his faith “community” choosing sides against him.

Saint Paul addresses similar disagreements in the early church at Corinth. He encourages the church there to make up their differences and to be united again in their belief and practice.

Today’s first reading from Isaiah speaks of a people weighed down by the yoke of sin and darkness. Certainly the bickering and differences among us can be classified as such. The Gospel tells of the beginning ministry of Jesus. The Light has come, encouraging us to “repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

CARRY THE LOAD

The chief thing is to take the burden on one’s shoulders. As you press forward, it soon shakes down and the load is evenly distributed.
