REDEFINING PRAYER

Continue earnestly in prayer,

being vigilant in it with thanksgiving. (Col. 4:2)

Early Christians were urged to: pray without ceasing (1 Thess.), always be prayerful (Rom. 12:12), pray at all times and on every occasion (Eph 6).

Sound burdensome? Are you wondering, my business needs attention, my children need dinner, my bills need paying. How can I stay in a place of prayer? Do this. Change your definition of prayer. Think of prayers less as an activity for God and more as an awareness of God. Seek to live in uninterrupted awareness. Acknowledge His presence everywhere you go. As you stand in line to register your car, think. Thank you, Lord for being here. In the grocery store as you shop, Your presence, my King, I welcome. As you wash the dishes, worship your Maker.

Come Thirsty

1ST READING REFLECTION

Deut. 18:15-20

In this reading Moses assures the people that God will raise up from among their descendants "a prophet like Moses." This prophet will speak what God commands. He will be a true spokesman for God.

Like the people of Israel, we too must be concerned about who can teach us the true will of God. We must realize that often there are false prophets around us, advising us badly. We should turn to Christ and the Church for true teaching of what is God's will for us, what is right and wrong, just and unjust.

Discussion Questions: How will you be a prophet to those around you?

PASTORAL COUNSELLING & SPIRITUAL GUIDANCE
