TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Many marriage customs stand in tension with modern American attitudes and values, notably "giving away the bride," which is no longer in the Catholic liturgy, and reminds us of a time when marriage was a contract between men (the groom and the bride's father). A Mexican custom, now approved for use in the United States, has a very different message.

An ancient Roman custom called for smashing pieces of gold and silver so that bride and groom could each keep half. This is the origin of today's Mexican practice of the groom giving thirteen gold coins to the bride, symbolically placing all his worldly goods into her care, and a sign of his unconditional trust. The coins are often given in beautiful gift boxes and are retained as an heirloom. Why thirteen? The standard explanation is that they represent Jesus and the apostles. The priest blesses the coins and pours them into the bride's cupped hands. Then she entrusts them to the groom, who later pours them back into her hands. This enduring ritual is in such harmony with our tradition's view of marriage that it is now increasingly performed by English speaking Hispanic Catholics at weddings in the United States. —Rev. Dear Parishioners of St. Anthony of Padua,
St. John de Brebeuf and Star of the Sea,

Where do I begin in writing this note of Thanksgiving? We've done so much together, grown so much together.

I remember my first weekend when I asked if everyone could wear name tags for the first 6 months so I could learn your names. Some of you came down to the reception with make shift name tags on! It only took two years for us to be at an event that included Mass where everyone was wearing name tags; our Parish Picnic at the Kiwanis Camp last September I finally had my request fulfilled! I wasn't sure what to expect when I began as your Pastoral Minister, but I quickly learned the parishioners were eager to help, had really great ideas, but most important, were true disciples of Christ, reaching out and loving others, wanting to share their gifts and talents.

As I am writing this, I can see all your faces, and so many memories come to mind, and I thank God for each and every one of them and every one of you. Your kind words in a message or spoken truly humbled me. I thank you for being a part of making me the person I am, for your generosity and the love and trust you showed me. You will forever be in my prayers, and if I could ask, that you keep me in yours. On a final note, a special Thank you to Fr. Rick for having the confidence and trust in me, your faith in me and the people of the parish allowed all of us to bloom and grow. Thank you for your wisdom and guidance. God Is Good... All the Time!
