IN ORDINARY TIME

GIVING OF ONESELF

Scientists have recently begun to discuss the idea that the primary force behind all life in the universe is self-gift. This is how everything from galaxies to human babies are born and sustained.

If we read the opening of today's passage from Isaiah correctly, we see that he anticipated twentieth-century scientists by over twenty five hundred years. Using the self-giving example of the rain and snow clouds that water the earth that then yields fruit, which in turn is given over to nourish creatures, Isaiah leads us to understand that the primary force behind all life is the word of God. The ultimate giving of that word, we believe, was Jesus Christ, who, in the greatest revelation of divine love, gave of himself on the cross.

To what degree are we in touch with that self-giving God in whose image we are made? To what extent do we really follow the self-giving example of Christ into whose death and resurrection we were baptized, whose ultimate self gift we celebrate every week in the Eucharist? With God's help, our lives can be like Isaiah's rain and snow, and we will not return to heaven until we have done our part to make the earth fruitful.

REFLECTION 16TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

PATIENTLY AWAITING JUDGMENT

Matthew, more than any other evangelist, talks about Jesus leaving and returning home. Often Jesus leaves the house because crowds have assembled outside and want to be taught. Today, after having taught and dismissed the crowds, his disciples follow him home, seeking further explanation of what seem to be, at least to us today, pretty straightforward parables.

For both Matthew and Mark, when Jesus is in the house with his disciples it signals a special teaching moment, and it should cause us today to perk up our ears. Usually it is Jesus giving common sense advice about what it will mean to follow him. Today is no different. To follow Jesus means to be ready to encounter the followers of evil, to have to live and work and preach among them. It means patiently awaiting the judgment that can only come from God, the judgment of justly deciding who will be thrown into the flame and who will live to be a brightly shining saint. Let us heed this house teaching, for it will be the same for us who follow Jesus.

CONGRATULATIONS

Our prayerful best wishes to John & Margaret Noel who celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary on July 11th. May God continue to bless them in their love of each other.

KNITTERS UNITE!

Do you enjoy knitting and/or crocheting? Would you like to offer your talents to help comfort those in need? We are in need of Prayer Shawls and if you have the time, we have the wool! The response to the request for wool has been tremendous, so we have lots to choose from. Each handmade shawl is blessed when completed and donated to those who are in special need of being "wrapped" in prayer and have encountered death of a loved one, serious or chronic illness, surgery, or emotional trauma. The group not only meets to work on their shawls, but also to pray and build community. Many people are in need of prayer; these shawls will be a reminder that the recipient is being lifted up in prayer. Please contact Betty our Pastoral Minister (bhompson@dol.ca or 519-733-6591) if you are interested in helping with this ministry.
