Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 21, 2019

It is (Christ) whom we proclaim, admonishing everyone and teaching everyone with all the wisdom, that we may present everyone perfect in Christ.

~Colossians 1:28b

Dear fellow parishioners,
I have news to share with you. I have officially retired as a Deacon. I have been serving in this ministry for the past twelve years and enjoyed it immensely. I have prayed about my decision and know that God's timing is always perfect, and this is the right time. I am still in fairly good health and want to have time left to spend doing what all retirees look forward to. My hobby is woodworking and my shop is calling me to get in there and get back to doing something I love. I also look forward to having more time and energy to spend with my family and friends. My wife Nita's health is improving steadily and I look forward to joining her in an active retirement. Just as a priest is always a priest, even after retirement, the same is also true of a deacon, since we too received the Sacrament of Holy Orders on our ordination day. I of course, will continue to be a parishioner, so you won't get rid of me that easily. It has been an honour and blessing to serve you and I thank all of you for your constant support, encouragement and prayers. I humbly ask that you continue to remember me and my family in your prayers and I will also do the same.

Yours in Christ,
Deacon Dennis
