SPIRITUAL CATARACTS

1 Corinthians 13:12: Now we see but a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face.

I know myself, but only in part. I know my spouse and children, and I know my parents—but only in part. I often look at the world through spiritual cataracts, my eyes dinged by worldly things. In my eyes, I may think that I'm more than I am. Others may think more or less. But, in God's eyes we are seen as we are. In His eyes we find understanding, grace, and compassion, for He knows us in truth. We want to look at others through God's eyes. But our understanding is only in part. The grace we extend, the compassion we feel, and the truth we see—they are all only in part. We do well to remember Phillipians 2:3,...in humility consider others better than yourselves. And as we encounter people throughout the day, perhaps we will find in Christ what we need to see others (and ourselves) through His eyes—eyes not clouded by speculation, prejudice, or selfishness.

DROUGHT IN SAHEL

The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops and the Canadian Catholic Organization for Development and Peace have announced a joint campaign to respond to the serious food shortage and drought in Sahel region of West Africa. 15 million people face food shortages and malnutrition. To donate, please make your cheques payable to your parish and write on the memo line: Sahel Drought and also on the outside of the envelope. Along with the funds, prayers are urgently needed for the victims and their families. Your prayers, generosity and assistance are greatly appreciated.

EUTHANASIA AND ASSISTED SUICIDE TIME TO STAND UP AND SPEAK OUT!

On June 15, a British Columbia Supreme Court judge declared Canada's laws against physician-assisted suicide unconstitutional because they discriminate against the physically disabled. If this ruling stands up to an appeal, Canada will be in the company of the Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg and Switzerland as countries that permit physician-assisted suicide. Who is most threatened? Those who are sick, aged, those with disabilities and who are suffering from depression. The solution is palliative care until natural death. It is a question of public safety, dignity, true compassion and solidarity. What can I do? Contact the Minister of Justice and Attorney General of Canada asking to appeal the BC Supreme Court decision in the Carter Case: Honorable Robert Douglas Nicholson, Minister of Justice and Attorney General of Canada, 284 Wellington St., Ottawa, On K1A 0H8

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Mark 6:30-34

If you have ever had the frustrating experience of being interrupted while you were trying to tell about some wonderful adventure, you will understand how the apostles feel in this Gospel. They have just returned from their first missionary journey. They want to tell Jesus about it. He leads them off to a quiet place where they can tell their stories. But the crowds follow them because they are hungry for Jesus' teaching and His healing touch.

Seeing the crowd, Jesus is moved to respond to them. They are like sheep that have been scattered. Out of love, the Good Shepherd calls them together and guides them. The apostles' adventure stories will have to wait.

Discussion Questions: What can we learn from the example of Jesus in this Gospel? How will you try to follow that example in your daily life?

GOSPEL REFLECTION

John 6:1-15

When large crowds gather, exciting and unexpected things can happen. That's the way it was when Jesus went up on a mountain shortly before the Passover feast. He had no idea that a crowd of five thousand would soon gather around Him. They were determined to hear Him speak and to see what great signs He might work. Unlike His disciples, Jesus was not concerned about how this huge crowd was to be fed on a few loaves and fishes. In familiar actions we recognize, Jesus took the bread, broke it, blessed it and gave it to His guest. When the crowd realized that everyone had been fed and there were still leftovers, they were astounded. They wanted to carry Jesus off on their shoulders and make Him their King.

Discussion Questions: Look back at the story. How does it encourage you to act when you feel that you have little to offer to those in need?

For everything there is a season.....

KINGSVILLE S.S.V.P.

Our Kingsville S.S.V.P. food cupboard is in desperate need of all non-perishable food items. Please bring the canned goods into the double glass doors off the parking lot. There is a basket in the corner. There is also a cupboard inside the front entrance. Monetary donations are also appreciated. (cheques are payable to S.S.V.P. Kingsville) Income tax receipts will be sent at year end.

RETROUVILLE

The next weekend will be August 10, 11, and 12, 2012. Retrouville simply means "rediscovery". The program offers the chance to rediscover yourself, your spouse, and a loving relationship in your marriage. Thousands headed for divorce have successfully saved their marriages by attending. Retrouville is not a spiritual retreat, not a sensitivity group, not a seminar, not a social gathering.

For confidential information about, or to register for the upcoming weekend, call 1-800-705-6456

SUMMER PRAYER

Thank You for the warmth of the sun and the increased daylight.
Thank You for the beauty I see all around me and the opportunity to be outside and enjoy Your creation. Thank You for the increased time I have to be with my friends and family, and for the more casual pace of the summer season. Draw me closer to You this summer. Teach me how I can pray no matter where I am or what I am doing. Warm my soul with the awareness of Your presence and light my path with Your Word and Counsel. As I enjoy Your creation, create in me a pure heart and a hunger and a thirst for You.
