IS R.C.I.A. FOR YOU?

If you or someone you know, is interested in learning more about the Catholic faith R.C.I.A. might be for you. It is for someone considering becoming a full member of the Catholic Church through Baptism, or if you are already Baptized in another Christian religion making a profession of faith in the Catholic Church. If we have sufficient numbers interested, the process will begin at our clustered parishes in the Fall. We need to start preparation soon, so please call the office and contact Dianne our Pastoral Minister or Fr. Rick asap. Each prospective candidate will be interviewed personally to determine if there is anything that could postpone their involvement at this time, so please don't delay.

READINGS-July 12, 2016

First Reading — Heed the voice of the LORD. It is something very near to you, already in your hearts; you only need to carry it out (Deuteronomy 30:10-14).

Psalm — Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live (Psalm 69) or Psalm 19.

Second Reading — All things were created through and for Christ Jesus (Colossians 1:15-20).

Gospel — To be a neighbor, show love by treating others with mercy, as did the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37).

PEACE

The greeting of peace at Mass adds substance to a message of today's readings: peace is relational. When we greet in peace the person near us at Mass, we share the touch of a handshake or embrace, sincere eye contact, and friendly words.

The scriptures speak of a similar peace. The first reading from Isaiah describes the peace of the holy city, Jerusalem, a place of prosperity and comfort where the "LORD's power shall be known to his servants" (Isaiah 66:14c).

The Christian understanding of peace changes slightly. Paul writes of the "peace and mercy" on all who are created anew. Jesus describes a feeling of peace that will rest on those who accept his disciples and their message.

Peace is both an absence of strife and a personal blessing. May we always and sincerely bring peace to our own lives as we share it with others.

CATHOLIC APOLOGETICS*ASSURANCE OF SALVATION I

Can a person lose or forfeit their salvation? After all, didn't Jesus say in John 10:28 "No one can take my sheep out of my hand?" Let's remember a couple of things. First, as humans we all have free will. We can choose to accept or reject Jesus each and every day. God doesn't force Himself on anyone. Second, salvation comes through faith in Christ. The Catechism of the Catholic Church says this: "Faith is an entirely free gift that God makes to man. We can lose this priceless gift..." then continues by citing 1 Timothy 1:18-19, "Wage the good warfare, holding faith and a good conscience. By rejecting conscience, certain persons have made shipwreck of their faith."

The Church teaches that our eternal destiny is determined by the state of our soul at the time of our death. Therefore, it is imperative that we renew and nurture our faith in Christ Jesus each and every day with ongoing conversion. The New Testament refers often to the need for perseverance in our faith. The Church takes seriously the words of our Savior in Matthew 24:13, "But the one who perseveres to the end will be saved."
