IS R.C.I.A. FOR YOU?

If you or someone you know, is interested in learning more about the Catholic faith R.C.I.A. might be for you. It is for someone considering becoming a full member of the Catholic Church through Baptism, or if you are already Baptized in another Christian religion making a profession of faith in the Catholic Church. If we have sufficient numbers interested, the process will begin at our clustered parishes in the Fall.

We need to start preparation soon, so please call the office and contact Dianne our Pastoral Minister or Fr. Rick asap @519-733-5828.

Each prospective candidate will be interviewed personally to determine if there is anything that could postpone their involvement at this time, so please don't delay.

*Have a safe and happy Holiday this Monday,
August 1, 2016.*

HITTING IT BIG

It seems to be commonly accepted nowadays that everyone wants to win the lottery, hit the slots big at the casino, or be a millionaire. This attitude is akin to what the first hearers of the parable of the successful farmer would have thought: Why, of course he'd want to find a way to preserve his good fortune for the future, to secure for himself a life of leisure, eating, drinking, and merriment. It's exactly the kind of life that the right ticket, hand of cards, or quiz show answer might bring us today. Being surrounded by this "common wisdom" makes the words of Qoheleth, the psalmist, Paul, and Jesus all that much harder to hear today. Perhaps good fortune will be ours, perhaps it will not be. But if we make that fortune or the quest for it the heart, the very center, of our lives, then we will live to regret it. We will not achieve the future security we pursue, and we will lose the present moment in the chase.

NEW FAITH SHARING-THIS FALL

For Parishioners at: St. John's & St. Anthony's
Looking for an exciting faith sharing programme? "Living in the Sacred" by Ronald Rolheiser is offered by "Renew International" and is an excellent resource for small group sharing. It is a 12 week programme—we will be probably have 6 weeks in the Fall and the final 6 weeks in the Spring. The groups will meet in parishioner's homes.

Fr. Ronald Rolheiser was born and raised in Saskatchewan.

He was ordained to the priesthood in 1972. He is a well known writer and speaker who has taught Theology and Philosophy at Newman College in Alberta.. His talks have inspired many. "Living in the Sacred" calls us to explore and develop deeper Spirituality, "encountering wisdom for life."

Fr. Rohlheiser in his book calls us to meet Jesus in the scriptures and bring ourselves into a deeper dialogue with Him through a rich, connected prayer life. We need to know how many of our parishioners are interested and then we can further organize and order supplies.

Deadline for registration is August 23, 2016.

If we get a good response we will start in the Fall. Please call the office asap to sign up or for more information @519-733-6591.

CATHOLIC APOLOGETICS

CALL NO MAN FATHER

Why do Catholics call their priests "Father?" After all, didn't Jesus forbid that in Matthew 23:9? Let's go to the Scriptures. In Matthew 23:9 Jesus says, "Call no one on earth your Father; you have but one Father in heaven." Now, did Jesus mean that you're not even allowed to refer to your dad as your father? Of course not: Jesus didn't mean that at all. If Christians took that verse literally, we would all have to refer to our male parent as "our male parent." So, was Jesus speaking strictly in a spiritual sense? Apparently, St. Paul didn't think so. In 1 Corinthians 4:15, St. Paul says, "You do not have many fathers, for I became your father in Christ Jesus through the Gospel." And in the letter to Philemon, verse 10, St. Paul talks about his "child" Onesimus (remember St. Paul never married) saying "..whose father I have become in my imprisonment..". And in Romans 4:16-17, St. Paul refers to Abraham as "...the father of us all...". The New Testament has many references to fathers. Just read the genealogy of Jesus in Matthew 1.

It's clear that St. Paul knew exactly what Jesus meant....not to attribute the Fatherhood of God to any man. So the next time you see a priest, why not say, "Thanks, Father, for guiding your spiritual children."

For further study: 1 Corinthians 4:14-16, Philemon 10, Romans 4:16-17, Matthew 1:1-17 Gus Lloyd (A Minute in the Church)
