FEAST OF THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

We need to remember that the Blessed Sacrament is most worthy of our attention, reverence and love, and worthy of mental and spiritual preparation and discipline. In order to receive the Eucharist in a spirit of great gratitude we can ask ourselves the following questions:

Am I full of negative feelings towards others? Am I too busy complaining about the traffic, the music, the crowd or lack of attendance to be open to Jesus' love?

Is my mind elsewhere? Am I so focused on the problems at work or home that I fail to open myself to the one who has the answer? Am I using the time I should be praying at Mass to mentally tick off my grocery list. Am I thinking about the game this afternoon or the movie I saw last night? Is it any wonder we get so little out of Communion? We are called to be a Eucharistic people. Jesus wanted to be at the center of our lives. Let's resolve to celebrate this Feast in a spirit of reparation for our past offences against the Eucharist and in a spirit of great gratitude for this sublime gift. If we get into the habit of examining and improving our participation in the Eucharist on this feast-and all Masses-we will be filled with every grace and blessing.

RESPONDING TO DROUGHT IN SAHEL

The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops and the Canadian Catholic Organization for Development and Peace have announced a joint campaign to respond to the serious food shortage and drought in Sahel region of West Africa. 15 million people face food shortages and malnutrition. To donate, please make your cheques payable to your parish and write on the memo line: Sahel Drought and also on the outside of the envelope. Along with the funds, prayers are urgently needed for the victims and their families. Your prayers, generosity and assistance are greatly appreciated.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

When people arrive at their parish church to celebrate Mass, they are often distracted by many things. But this Gospel reminds us of what Eucharist is all about. It helps us to focus on the Last Supper, the final Pass-over meal Jesus shared with His friends. There we hear Him say those familiar and astounding words: "This is my body, this is my blood." The breaking of the bread and pouring out of the wine reminds us once again of how Jesus' body was broken on the cross and how His blood was spilled for us. Now we are His body on earth. And we are nourished by His Eucharistic presence among us.

Discussion Questions: Who or what helps you to get "lugged into" what is really happening in the celebration of the Eucharist. How would you describe the difference the Eucharist makes in your life: What can you do to help others appreciate the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ?
