HOSPITAL VISITATION
Volunteers Needed

We need parishioners (male & female) from both parishes to visit patients in Leamington Hospital once a month. You would go in teams of two. This ministry is very important and means so much to the sick. It is only at most, a 2 hour commitment once a month, and at the present time, we are very short of volunteers. All that is needed is a cheerful smile. Please prayerfully consider helping to keep this ministry vibrant.

For more info. call the office @519-733-6591.

READINGS-June 19, 2016

First Reading — Zechariah foretells the Messiah (Zechariah 12:10-11; 13:1).

Psalms — My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God (Psalm 63).

Second Reading — There are no distinctions or divisions; we all belong to Christ (Galatians 3:26-29).

Gospel — Peter proclaims Jesus as the Christ; Jesus speaks of his great suffering to come (Luke 9:18-24).

PROFLIGATE?

I'd rather be a beggar and spend my last dollar like a king, than be a king and spend my money like a beggar.

—Robert G. Ingersoll

HOPE AND FORGIVENESS

There were some interesting conceptions of sin prevalent in the time of the Hebrew scriptures. There was the belief that God punished sin immediately. Those who suffered disease or misfortune were, therefore, sinners getting their due from the Almighty.

Today's first reading hints at another kind of God. When David admits his sin, Nathan declares, "The LORD on his part has forgiven your sin" (2 Samuel 12:13b). Here was not a vengeful God but a merciful God. What good news that must have been to David and those who, like him, could be honest enough to admit their sinfulness!

Jesus is the good news of God's mercy and forgiveness incarnate. Without Jesus, perhaps the good news would have been too good to believe, too difficult to imagine. But there He is in today's Gospel, the God-man, forgiving a sinner and declaring that she is forgiven because of her great love.

There is hope, then, for the rest of us sinners, if only we love enough!

RETROUVAILLE WEEKEND

Windsor-Aug. 19, 20, 21, 2016

Is your marriage or that of a relative or friend heading for divorce? Do you know how to save that marriage or do you feel helpless? Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi) is designed to help troubled marriages regain their health. It helps spouses uncover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that originally brought them together.

The program is highly successful in saving hurting marriages, even bringing reconciliation to couples who have already separated or divorced.

AIR CONDITIONING IN THE CHURCH

We have been receiving some complaints about the temperature in the church. Some say it's too hot, others say it's too cold.

The temperature is scheduled to come on at a time, prior to Mass, to make it comfortable for the Mass.

The suggestion is to bring a sweater or jacket in the event it is too cool for you or too hot....?

Just a quick reminder!
