40 DAYS FOR LIFE UPDATE

Please remember 40 Days for Life in your prayers this summer. Work has begun on the Fall campaign that will start September 25th—at Leamington Hospital. Please prayerfully consider being a part of this important campaign to protect the life of the unborn. “They have no voice but ours”. The more volunteers we have, the bigger impact we will make and more lives will be saved. Those who have been involved in the past will tell you what a blessing it was for them....they received much more than they gave.

If you have any questions or would like to volunteer, please call Helen @519-733-3516 or 519-816-0402

R.C.I.A.

The Journey of Faith begins with your questions. What is faith? How does it grow? What do Catholics believe and why is it different from other faith traditions? Classes for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults are available for anyone who wants to become Catholic or for those who have been baptized but have not received the Sacrament of Confirmation. Although this is not an update perse, those wishing to learn more about the Catholic Faith are welcome. Please contact Betty at the parish office @733-6591. Classes will begin in the Fall and pre-registration is necessary.

Reasons for being a part of the journey:

“I want to participate in Communion. I want my children to have a solid Christian foundation”

“I joined RCIA so that I could receive Eucharist with my family.”

“I originally entered the RCIA only to learn more about Catholicism but ended up embarking on a very personal spiritual journey that changed my life.”

“After marrying a Catholic, raising our children Catholic, and volunteering at our parish, my son asked me why I wasn’t Catholic. I felt the Holy Spirit was leading me to take this journey in my spiritual life.”

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

*There is neither Jew nor Greek,
there is neither slave nor free person,
there is not male and female;
for you are all one in Christ Jesus.*

— Galatians 3:28

Congratulations Anthony.....

Anthony Rebkowec, a parishioner at St. John’s has been accepted into the Permanent Diaconate Formation & Study Program, as a member of the class of 2017. As Anthony and those responsible for his formation continue the process of the discernment of his call over the next four years, it is to be remembered that his acceptance into the Program does not constitute a guarantee that he will be ordained. The final decision about his call to the Order of Deacon will be the responsibility of Bishop Fabbro after consultation with the Evaluation Team.

Anthony, it is the prayer of our cluster parishes that the next four years will be a time of growth and development for you, your wife Corrie, and son Spencer.

God’s blessings upon you!

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Luke 9:18-24

Today's Gospel from Luke is perhaps one of the most poignant accounts of Jesus. Before this exchange with His disciples, Jesus has already cured the possessed man, cured Simon Peter's mother-in-law, cured the leper, taught the multitude about God's love, healed the paralytic, healed the centurion's slave, raised the widow's son from death, pardoned the sinful woman, calmed the storm at sea, healed the Gerasene demoniac and Jairus' daughter and the woman with the hemorrhage. He had fed the 5,000 men plus women and children with 5 loaves and 2 fish. Now, He is praying in solitude and the disciples are with Him. He asks, "Who do the crowds say I am?" What did Jesus feel as he asked? What answer did He expect, or hope for? And what did He think when the disciples answered: John the Baptist, Elijah, or one of the ancient prophets arisen? Then the Gospel says, He said, "But who do you say that I am?" Did Jesus hope—after all the miracles and teachings—they would finally understand? Today, we might reflect on that same question that Jesus asks, "Who do you say that I am?" We have the witness of Peter who was the first to reply to Jesus, saying Jesus is "The Christ of God." But when He turns to you and me, how shall we respond?

Discussion Question: "Who do you say that I am?"
Name one way your life answers who you believe Jesus to be.

Grace Enns
 and Tiffany Frias
 of St. John's Parish

At the conclusion of the End of the Year Mass at Cardinal Carter Secondary School in Leamington, Grace Enns received the Governor's Award for her dedication to Peer Ministry and years of service at Cardinal Carter.

Tiffany Frias received the Director's Award at Cardinal Carter for living the Gospel values, being involved in peer ministry and being a leader within her group.

Congratulations to both girls for their outstanding efforts in living out the Gospel and reaching out to others in their parish and school.

STAY HEALTHY THIS SUMMER!

How are you meeting your spiritual needs? How are you nourishing your soul? These are good questions to keep in mind over the summer, as many of us travel and tend to get distracted from our spiritual lives. Like physical health, spiritual health needs our attention and priority if we are to enjoy lives that are strong, balanced and joyful. We know that if we never exercise, our bodies will become unhealthy. We will suffer and our lives will be filled with pain. Your spirit needs exercise too! The best way to stay in spiritual shape is to pray daily, both informally (for instance, when you are relaxing) and formally (at mealtime or bedtime). Go to the "gym" (church) where you can get a spiritual workout. Worship with your brothers and sisters; hear the Word of God proclaimed in music, Scripture and sacrament. For advanced spiritual exercises you can meditate, engage in service, practice love or just sit in holy silence for a few minutes each day. And how about your spiritual diet? We need to feed our spirit good stuff, too. The Bible provides the best spiritual nourishment. Like an apple a day, a little Bible a day goes a long way to keeping you healthy and strong spiritually. Spiritual health needs our constant attention, especially in the summer. When we go on vacation, it's easy to go on vacation from God as well.
So this summer, work hard at your spiritual health.
