TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today, the languages of the whole world arise to God in a Pentecost of praise. In some American dioceses, the Mass is offered every Sunday in more than thirty different languages, including the silent praise of American Sign Language. Fifty years ago, the landscape of liturgy was very different. It was grounded firmly in Latin, which is to the present day still the official language of the Roman Rite. Very few people were fluent in Latin, even though in those days Latin was far more widely studied in school. Nevertheless, almost every Catholic was competent in the responses and chants of Latin since it is not difficult to pronounce. The clergy were normally minimally competent in Latin, since much of seminary education was conducted in that language.

When the Second Vatican Council was convened, all of the debate and daily work of the council was to be in Latin. In the first session in 1962, Boston's Cardinal Richard Cushing continually complained about it, and threatened not to return in 1963 if something wasn't done. He convinced the fathers when he rose to speak in fairly fluent Latin in an unforgettable Boston twang. The next year, he returned, but with a simultaneous translation system funded by the people of Boston. The ordinary everyday language of the people, the vernacular, had arrived at the Vatican via Boston!

Please remember that our churches and the Fr. Doll Room are scent-free. Some parishioners have stopped coming to Mass due to severe allergies to perfumes, after-shaves etc., and others develop headaches and can't concentrate. Please pass this information on to those who don't read the bulletin. Thank you kindly.

CATHOLIC ENGAGED ENCOUNTER
LONDON DIOCESE

Catholic Engaged Encounter provides quality preparation for marriage in a weekend retreat format. CEE gives couples the opportunity to discover the deep meaning of the Sacrament of Marriage within the Catholic Church. CEE offers couples a unique experience which focuses strongly on fostering good communication in marriage as well as upon its deeper Catholic Christian spiritual dimension.

The weekend is for engaged couples who have a definite commitment to each other and who are considered “free to marry” according to the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church. It is primarily for couples being married in the Catholic Church, including Catholic couples, mixed marriages and interfaith couples.

The next weekend is being held:

September 22, 23, 24, 2017 at the Michaelite Retreat Centre in Melrose, Ontario. Registration deadline is 10 days prior to the weekend.

SISTERS OF THE PRECIOUS BLOOD

We invite you to join us in prayer during a special Novena of Masses beginning June 9th through June 17th in preparation for the upcoming, Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ on Sunday, June 18th. This great Liturgical Feast invites us to celebrate the Gift of Divine Life within and among us. Together, let us pray for the grace to truly incarnate the Body of Christ in each of our lives and communities.

Novena Prayer: Lord Jesus Christ, we worship you living among us in the sacrament of your body and blood. May we offer to our Father in heaven a solemn pledge of undivided love. May we offer to our brothers and sisters a life poured out in loving service of that kingdom where you live with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

SEND OUT YOUR SPIRIT

Last week we heard that, following the Ascension, the disciples, Mary, and other followers of the Lord retreated to the upper room in prayer. This week we hear that, while praying in that room, the Holy Spirit comes upon them. Jesus' post-Resurrection promise, recounted in today's Gospel, is fulfilled: the power of the Holy Spirit comes upon Jesus' followers. Saint Paul tells us that all of us, in some way, are given gifts of the Holy Spirit, gifts that can be used to spread the Good News. Today is one of the Church's greatest festivals. Let us carry the refrain of the responsorial psalm with us throughout the coming week: "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth!" (Psalm 104:30).
