HELP WANTED for SSVP (Kingsville)
2017 MARCH TAX CLINIC in Kingsville

This is our 5th year preparing taxes for people with low incomes, free of charge. We still need TAX PREPARERS and RECEPTIONISTS to help with this service. We would also like to teach online tax preparation to those who have access to a computer, enabling them to help themselves and their families and neighbours. If you are interested in helping us in either capacity, please call Catherine 519-980-3230 or email Carol at carollabutte@gmail.com with any questions. Dates and times are posted on the St. Vincent de Paul bulletin board. THANK YOU!

Lent 2 Reflection / Prayer

Reflect on the Transfiguration (Mount Tabor), the Agony in the Garden (Mount Olivet), and the Crucifixion (Mount Calvary). What does each one say to you about Jesus? How does each invite you to enter into a deeper relationship with him in your own experience of self-revelation, hesitation, and self-giving in suffering?
Lord Jesus, take us with you up the mountains of your suffering and glory to pray and to know you more truly.

Attention all Knitters and Crocheters

Prayer Shawl/Blankets needed. If you have any please drop them off to the office or give them to Dianne. They are always appreciated. Thank you.

ALL DAY CONFESSIONS ~ WEDNESDAY APRIL 5th, 2017

“Reconciliation, Confession or Penance is a sacrament instituted by Jesus in His love and mercy to offer sinners forgiveness for offenses committed against God. At the same time sinners reconcile with the Church because it is also wounded by our sins.”

Our annual “All Day Confessions” will be celebrated Wednesday, April 5th at both parishes. Location times will be published during the month of March. Brochures with aids to making a good confession will also be available. Please mark the date on your calendar now to celebrate the Lord’s love, mercy and forgiveness.

A Modern Witness to the Gospel: Henri Nouwen

Henri Nouwen was a Dutch Catholic priest, professor, writer and theologian, who authored 40 books on the spiritual life. “At the time of his death in 1966, Henri Nouwen was one of the most popular and influential spiritual writers of his time. Through dozens of books he invited countless persons to enter more deeply into the spiritual life – intimacy with Jesus and solidarity with the wounded world.” (Robert Ellsberg). Join us in experiencing the healing power of Nouwen’s spirituality. Facilitators: Sr. Janine & Fr. Joe Suggested offering: $15 includes snacks

Wednesday, March 29, 1 – 4pm

Providence: The Ways of God

“All I know of tomorrow is that Providence will rise before the sun.” (Lacordaire) What do we mean when we use the term “providence”?

How does God intervene in our lives without compromising our freedom? These and other questions will be explored over the course of our time together. Facilitator: Paul Rennick csb Suggested offering: $15 includes snacks

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Blessed Sacrament was not reserved in church buildings in the first centuries of the church. In those early years, of course, people met in borrowed “house churches,” gathering on the Lord’s Day for community, apostolic teaching, the breaking of the bread, and the prayers, as Acts of the Apostles tells us. Dispersed, people went their way into the workaday world until the next assembly. Weighing down their hearts was the absence of brothers and sisters, not only the sick, but those imprisoned for the faith. No wonder they developed a way of extending the food of the Holy Table to them. Forty years ago, every altar boy in training heard about Saint Tarcisius. He was a twelve-year-old boy at the time of intense persecution in fourth-century Rome. His community had begun to convey the consecrated bread from their Eucharist to those condemned to death or awaiting trial. Normally deacons did this, but on one occasion, it was necessary to send the boy to bear the holy mysteries to the prison. The legend says that he was an athlete, and was detained on the way by some playmates who wanted him to join in their game. When he refused, they demanded to know what he was carrying. The situation went from bad to worse, and he was badly beaten and died of his injuries. A hundred years later, a pope called him a second St. Stephen. In the nineteenth century, Cardinal Nicholas Wiseman of England wrote a novel in which he expanded the story and popularized it. By then, no one seemed to notice that this twelve-year-old was actually touching and ministering the Eucharist, unthinkable until recently. Scholars say the story rings true: the first reason for setting some Eucharistic bread aside was not adoration, but Communion of the sick. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

“Women are building an inclusive society in Indonesia”

This week, Development and Peace—Caritas Canada is taking you to Indonesia to meet Risya, a 22-year-old Indonesian woman who has been blind since adolescence. Thanks to a workshop in journalism offered by our partner the Association of Independent Journalists (AJI), this courageous young woman started to use her blog to write about the discrimination faced by women with disabilities and to encourage these women to believe in their potential. AJI has offered media workshops to 170 women and now they can make their voices heard!

Remember! In 2004, a tsunami hit the coastlines around the Indian Ocean, resulting in 300,000 victims. In collaboration with its partners, Development and Peace provided emergency relief, completed the construction of 3,500 permanent homes and related infrastructure, and helped establish 26 community organizations.
