FIRST COMMUNIONS

For the next several weeks, we will be celebrating First Communion of our little ones at all of our masses. As family members come to celebrate with these young people, our masses may be a little fuller. Please keep these young people in your prayers.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

The feast of Divine Mercy, celebrated on the Octave of Easter (the Sunday after Easter Sunday), is a relatively new addition to the Roman Catholic liturgical calendar. Celebrating the Divine Mercy of Jesus Christ, as revealed by Christ Himself to Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska, this feast was extended to the entire Catholic Church by Pope John Paul II on April 30, 2000, the day he canonized Saint Faustina. A plenary indulgence (the forgiveness of all temporal punishment resulting from sins that have already been confessed) is granted on the Feast of Divine Mercy to all the faithful who go to Confession, receive Holy Communion, pray for the intentions of the Holy Father, and "in any church or chapel, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin take part in the prayers and devotions held in honour of Divine Mercy, or who, in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, recite the Our Father and the Creed, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus (e.g. 'Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!') A partial indulgence (the remission of some temporal punishment from sin) is granted to the faithful "who, at least with a contrite heart, pray to the merciful Lord Jesus a legitimately approved invocation."

2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER (Divine Mercy Sunday) May 1, 2011

Thank you to all who helped make our Holy Week Liturgies the grace and spirit-filled celebrations they were. We come week after week and perhaps are lead to believe that these celebrations just "happen". In fact, good Liturgy is planned and prepared. I extend my thanks and appreciation to all those in our ministries of music, the Word, Eucharist, Altar Servers, Ushers, decorators, money counters, and Sacristans.

A special thank you to Fr. Michael O'Brien for celebrating Good Friday & Easter Sunday with us. A heartfelt thank you to our parish team: Deacon Dennis and Lisa, our support staff: Janet, Nita, Bob & Monica, Julie, Elaine and Len & Romy.

Last but not least, thanks to our parishioners for your generous support of our clustered parishes.

May the Risen Christ give you peace and hope throughout this Easter season.

Fr. Rick
