VICTORIA DAY HISTORY

Queen Victoria was born on May 24, 1819. Following the death of 3 uncles and her father, she became Queen of the United Kingdom on June 20, 1837 and reigned until her death on January 22, 1901. During Victoria's life, the British Empire expanded considerably. However, her powers as Queen of the United Kingdom were reduced as the House of Commons became more important and powerful in British politics.

The monarch's birthday has been celebrated in Canada since before the beginning of Queen Victoria's reign. After her death, in 1901, May 25 became known as Empire Day. The sovereign's official birthday was still celebrated, often on the King's or Queen's actual birthday. In 1952, Empire Day was moved to the Monday before May 25 and since 1953, the official birthday of Queen Elizabeth II has been celebrated on this date in Canada. In 1958, Empire Day became known as Commonwealth Day, which was moved to the second Monday in March. The Monday before May 25 then became known as Victoria Day, which is a Canadian statutory holiday.

Happy Victoria Day Weekend

SISTERS OF THE PRECIOUS BLOOD

We invite you to join us in prayer during a special Novena of Masses beginning June 9th through June 17th in preparation for the upcoming, Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ on Sunday, June 18th. This great Liturgical Feast invites us to celebrate the Gift of Divine Life within and among us. Together, let us pray for the grace to truly incarnate the Body of Christ in each of our lives and communities.

Novena Prayer: Lord Jesus Christ, we worship you living among us in the sacrament of your body and blood. May we offer to our Father in heaven a solemn pledge of undivided love. May we offer to our brothers and sisters a life poured out in loving service of that kingdom where you live with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
