SEEKING TO UNDERSTAND THE TRINITY

If you sometimes find the Church's teachings incomprehensible, be encouraged by today's Gospel. Recognizing how bewildered His disciples have become, Jesus says, "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now." Then he promises that "the Spirit of truth" will come to make things clear.

Even with the coming of the Spirit, we never fully understand. Today we hear the ancient poetry of the book of Proverbs, singing of God's wisdom "playing on the surface of his earth," delighting in humankind. We hear Paul boasting of his joy—not only in the blessings God sends, but even in "our afflictions."

Theologians wrestle with the mystery of the Trinity; with the help of the Spirit they make that divine mystery a little more clear to the Church. We understand a little. But mostly we listen, we pray, and we ask the Spirit for more clarity.

DAY RETREAT—"FASHIONED BY GOD"

Thursday, May 30th 10am-2pm

Marie Rose Place,

318 Randolph St. Windsor (519-253-1383)

"...as the clay is in the potter's hand, so you are in mine..." Jeremiah 18:7

We invite you to reflect on how our loving God shapes and reshapes us into vessels for a specific purpose throughout our life. Through music, scripture, reflection on our personal journey, and working with clay, participants will better appreciate God's plan for them. No experience working with clay is needed.

Facilitators: Janine Rocheleau snjm, Fr. Joe Quinn
Suggested offering: $25 includes clay, homemade soup, snacks and refreshments.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

John 16:12-15

Today's Gospel continues with Jesus' advice and instructions to the disciples at the Last Supper. He promises that the Spirit will be there to guide His followers to the truth. The Spirit will speak in Jesus' name, just as Jesus speaks in the Father's name. Each of these three Persons in one God belongs to the other. We call this mystery of God's identity the Blessed Trinity.

Discussion Questions: We often use a triangle as a symbol for the Trinity. Each side is equal, and each of the three sides make one triangle. In the Trinity, all three Persons (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit) are equal. Saint Patrick used a shamrock to describe the Trinity. A shamrock is one plant with three leaves. Can you think of a design or symbol that helps you relate to the Trinity?

THE ROSARY

Many people condemn the praying of the Rosary, calling it rote prayer and citing Matthew 6:7, where Jesus says, "In prayer, do not babble on like the pagans, who think that they will be heard because of their many words."

Perhaps these people don't know that the Rosary is actually a deeply meditative prayer that focuses on events in the life of Christ and His mother. The Rosary offers us time to reflect on four sets of mysteries, each set containing five events. The mysteries are the Glorious, Sorrowful, the Joyful and the Luminous.

For each of the events, ten Hail Mary's are prayed. Now, many people don't even know that, while you're praying the ten Hail Mary's, you're actually reflecting on an event from the Scriptures or the life of Christ or Mary. There are even Scriptural Rosaries, where you read a Bible verse before each Hail Mary.

You see, the Hail Mary's actually give us time for proper reflection. You may even kind of consider them like background music. So, if someone tells you that the Rosary is just rote prayer, fill them in on the deeply meditative prayer that it truly is.
