TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

If you could somehow transport a third-century Christian into your twenty-first-century Sunday Mass, once the initial shock wore off he or she would be more or less at home with the structure of the first part of the liturgy, the Word. The second part might be more difficult to comprehend. The stumbling block would be the book. We have a book, a missal that is set down on the altar with a very precisely prescribed set of words for the priest to say and the people to sing at the Eucharistic Prayer. In the early days of the church, there were no set "formulas" for this prayer. The ancients would have raised eyebrows at our "bookishness" since they preferred to let the prayers roll forth from a gifted leader of prayer. There was a basic shape to the prayer of thanksgiving, and almost general agreement that the words of Christ at the Last Supper ought to be included.

By the second century, Justin Martyr wrote that the presider "gives thanks at some length . . . and when he has finished the prayers and the thanksgiving, all the people present give their assent by saying 'Amen.'" In the world before books, people could memorize long passages of prose and poetry, and so it is easy to see how particular phrases or expressions passed from church to church.

This great Liturgical Feast invites us to celebrate the Gift of Divine Life within and among us. Together, let us pray for the grace to truly incarnate the Body of Christ in each of our lives and communities.

Novena Prayer: *Lord Jesus Christ, we worship you living among us in the sacrament of your body and blood. May we offer to our Father in heaven a solemn pledge of undivided love. Our Parishes and Our Seminary: Stronger Together – Parish Appeal and Rekindling the Gift

Last weekend marked the Annual Parish Appeal for St. Peter's Seminary. Starting this year, and for the next three years, all parishioners of the Diocese of London will be asked to respond with special generosity. The funds raised will support both the operational needs of the Seminary, as in previous years, and the much-needed refurbishment of the Seminary building. Bishop Fabbro reminds us of the importance of the Seminary to the vitality of our parishes now and in the future. Please read the Appeal brochure you received last weekend to discover how improving the Seminary will benefit us all.

The targeted goals for:

St. Anthony's parish (over 4 years) is: Operational needs: $6,180 and Capital Target : $10,300.

St. John de Brebeuf parish (over 4 years) Operational needs: $7,140 and Capital Target: $11,900

If you have misplaced or did not receive an inserted brochure last weekend, extras are available. If you have any questions, please feel free to call me.
