ONE STEP AT A TIME

Your word is like a lamp for my feet and a light for my path. Psalm 119:105

Arthur Sulzberger was the publisher of the New York Times during the Second World War. Because of the world conflict, he found it almost impossible to sleep. He was never able to banish worries from his mind until he adopted as his motto these five words—"one step is enough for me", take from the hymn "Lead Kindly Light." God isn't going to let you see the distant scene either, so you might as well quit looking for it. He promises a lamp unto our feet, not a crystal ball into the future. We do not need to know what will happen tomorrow. God is leading you. Leave tomorrow's problems until tomorrow.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

John 14:15-21

Several words in today's Gospel are so important that we should repeat them to ourselves often: "Obey the commands I give you." Jesus knows how difficult this would be for us if we had to do it all alone. So he gives us a Helper, the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit living and working in us enables us to put the teaching of Jesus into action.

Discussion Questions: Jesus promised to send the Spirit of truth and love to us. Where do you find truth and love in your life? There you will find the Holy Spirit. When is truth and love fun and exciting? When is truth and love hard and difficult?
