A time to die..... Julia Gegeny, Peter Man-shande, David Breault...May they rest in peace

The Sisters of the Precious Blood invite you to join them in prayer to celebrate their feast, and the feast of the whole church, the Body and Blood of Christ (June 7th). They will be praying the Novena from May 29-June 6 inclusive and invite us to pray the Novena prayer included below. As women living the consecrated life may they be faithful, constant and generous in their commitment by living their vows of poverty, chastity and obedience, and by renewing their dedication to serve God and His People. We assure the Sisters also of our special prayers as they enter into the meetings of their General Chapter, June 9-15.

Prayer-TO JESUS PRESENT IN THE EUCHARIST

Jesus, you came into our world so that we may have new life in You. To preserve and to nourish this life, You are present in the EUCHARIST as our food. Let Your sustaining presence be felt by all those in distress. Let the weak and sorely tempted feel the influence of Your presence, and believing in You, may they come to You. Grant them an abiding love, deep and strong. In the power of that love, may they go forth to bring Your love to others in need. Relying on the power of Your most Precious Blood, we make this prayer in your name, Lord Jesus. Amen

THE TRINITY IS LOVE

Theologians throughout the Christian centuries have spilled much ink (and, on occasion, some blood) in describing and defining the mystery of the Holy Trinity. One of the earliest, most poetic, and beautiful descriptions comes from St. Augustine in De Trinitas, wherein he describes the Trinity as One (the Father) who loves, One (the Son) who is loved, and One (the Spirit) who is love. And these three Ones are also one Three.

It might be wisest for us to leave the technical wranglings to the academic theologians, and focus on the fact that the three Persons of the Trinity are indeed persons; they are best known and understood in their love for each other and for us. We are made in the image of those loving persons, and our best relationships are lived out in the context of love. Truly loving relationships are inexhaustible mysteries to be lived in joy. If this is true of our human relationships, how much more so is it true of our relationship with the Trinity. And how much more does it call upon us to be joyful, loving witnesses of the holy mystery of the One-in-Three. This is the mystery to which we were called when we were chosen to be God's own, baptized with water in the name of the Holy Trinity.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

There are plenty of “treasures” in our tradition that if resurrected today would cause anxious moments for bishops! Many concern marriage. There was a time when the church “consecrated” both virgins dedicated to prayer and charity, and brides dedicated to husband and family. Virgins were blessed in the sanctuary of the church, and brides in the sanctuary of the home. The custom of blessing the bride in the marriage chamber was standard in England, Ireland, Spain, and France until the eleventh century.

If the groom (the groom’s side planned the wedding) chose from the full menu of liturgy, there would be a blessing of the bridal room, solemn evening prayer on the eve and morning prayer on the day of the wedding, a blessing at the church door of the spouses, and then in the church for the wife alone during Mass, and Communion. After the feast, a priest would represent the bride’s father in presiding over the legal process by which the bride transferred from her father’s clan to her husband’s. Some enduring customs harken back to these days when marriage was seen as a contract between men (the bride’s father and the groom) and was not so much about living out one’s baptismal call, and certainly not about the equality of the spouses in Christ. Happily, this baptismal focus has been restored and unhelpful customs set aside by today’s marriage rite.
