GOSPEL REFLECTION

Luke 24:13-35

As two downhearted disciples journey to Emmaus, a stranger joins them. To Him they pour out their crushed hopes about Jesus who has been crucified and whom they miss so much. After listening carefully to their story, the stranger tells them that they are slow to "believe all that the prophets have announced". He then explains the Scripture to them. The disciples are delighted with the stranger's teaching but they do not realize that the stranger is Jesus until He takes bread, blesses it, breaks it, and gives it to them. At Mass the priest does this very same thing today. At Mass we too meet Jesus along the road of our lives, and Jesus gives Himself to us through these very actions.

Discussion Questions: Our friends can either lead us to walk with Jesus or to walk away from Him. How do you support and help your friends in walking with Jesus? How do they support and help you? How do you show that you too, recognize Jesus in the breaking of the bread at the celebration of the Eucharist?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

"Mystagogy," reflection on the Easter mysteries, is the chief task of these great fifty days, a "pentecost," in other words, of grace and renewal. Every Sunday we have accounts of Resurrection appearances of the Lord, and sketches of the earliest efforts at being church.

Lent is described as a journey to the font, and Easter may be described in similar terms, since at the very beginning an angel tells the apostles that the Risen Lord "has gone before you into Galilee." Galilee, of course, was the place where Jesus did his finest work, his preaching, his healing, his gathering the lost and the marginalized to the table. At Easter, we hurry to catch up, putting our renewed baptismal promises to work in our own personal Galilees, our little worlds waiting for a word of grace, a healing, an act of pardon, an invitation to share a meal. The water often splashed on our Sunday assemblies in Eastertide remind us: these are the golden, shining days of grace, days to nurture the heart, to speak to one another about things that really matter.
