Syrian Refugee Family Sponsorship Support

If we receive a positive response to the possibility of sponsoring a refugee family, we will need many volunteers to assist with settlement of our refugee family during the sponsorship period of 1 year.

Settlement support to a refugee family includes:

- Orienting them to life in Canada (taking them to the grocery store, appointments, etc.)
- Arranging temporary accommodation/helping them find permanent accommodation
- Applying for Interim Federal Health Program
- Applying for Health Card
- Enrolling children in school
- Enrolling family members in English classes
- Assisting the family in finding doctor, dentist and other health services
- Applying for Social Insurance Number
- Assisting in job search
- Opening a bank account
- Providing emotional and moral support

If you are interested in helping with settlement support of a refugee family to our community please contact:

"THE POPE, THE SYNOD AND THE RESPONSE OF MERCY"

The October 2015 Synod on the Family is an integral event and process in the pastoral vision of Pope Francis. The Bishop of Rome has revived the 50 year old institution of the Synod of Bishops with his new style, dynamism and insistence on open dialogue among the shepherds of the Church. What does the Synod mean for the Church? How is it an instrument and agent of reform? How does it lead the whole Church into the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy?
