WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Next Sunday is World Mission Sunday. Every Catholic community and parish throughout takes part in World Mission Sunday. This collection is taken in many parishes on the 23rd of October but I have postponed it until the Feast of Christ the King (next Sunday). It is a global effort to bring spiritual and material help to our brothers and sisters who long for hope and love that comes from knowing Christ's love for them. It will help new churches to grow, be strong and vital faith communities.

Donation envelopes are found in your 2012 offertory box and there is also an envelope attached to this bulletin for those who do not use Sunday envelopes.

Please continue to pray for all those who serve in mission countries and please be generous in your support of their work.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Mark 13: 24-32

In this Gospel, we look forward to the day of Jesus' second coming. We do not know the day or the hour of His coming; only God knows. Meanwhile, as Jesus has repeatedly taught us, we must watch and wait for Him in faith, hope, and love. In the hour we least expect Him, He warns, He will come. Let us pray in today's liturgy for ourselves and for the whole Church, that the Lord may find us ready when He returns. May we not be doing foolish things or be living in fear, but be awaiting the Kingdom with hope as we strive to do God's will.

Discussion Questions: Someone asked St. Thomas "If the world were to end in fifteen minutes, what would you do?" He replied, "I would continue doing exactly what I am doing right now." How can you be ready for Jesus to come again?

ARISE

Called to bring Joy and Hope! This is the purpose of our faith, this is why we are called to charity, this is the hope entrusted to us that we have to share with the world. We are called to nothing less than to shape history in terms of the Good News proclaimed and embodied by Jesus.

The question asked this week:

What will I do this week to promote life?
7 people offered one day of fasting and prayer
30 people offered to pray the Arise prayer each day.

Our church office is in need of volunteers to help out. We need bulletin stuffers approximately once a month on Friday mornings, hot coffee cheerfully provided. It would also be helpful to have people willing to answer phones when our secretary's are ill or on vacation. If you are interested, please call Nita @733-6591 asap.
