All Souls' Day
The Church's Teaching regarding the Faithful Departed

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states:
1023 Those who die in God's grace and friendship and are perfectly purified live for ever with Christ. They are like God for ever, for they "see him as he is," face to face: By virtue of our apostolic authority, we define the following: According to the general disposition of God, the souls of all the saints . . . and other faithful who died after receiving Christ's holy Baptism (provided they were not in need of purification when they died, . . . or, if they then did need or will need some purification, when they have been purified after death, . . .) already before they take up their bodies again and before the general judgment – and this since the Ascension of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ into heaven – have been, are and will be in heaven, in the heavenly Kingdom and celestial paradise with Christ, joined to the company of the holy angels. Since the Passion and death of our Lord Jesus Christ, these souls have seen and do see the divine essence with an intuitive vision, and even face to face, without the mediation of any creature.

1030 All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven.

1031 The Church gives the name Purgatory to this final purification of the elect, which is entirely different from the punishment of the damned. The Church formulated her doctrine of faith on Purgatory especially at the Councils of Florence and Trent. The tradition of the Church, by reference to certain texts of Scripture, speaks of a cleansing fire: As for certain lesser faults, we must believe that, before the Final Judgment, there is a purifying fire. He who is truth says that whoever utters blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will be pardoned neither in this age nor in the age to come. From this sentence we understand that certain offenses can be forgiven in this age, but certain others in the age to come.

THE POWER TO LOVE

This is what God commands...that we love each other

Does bumping into certain people leave you brittle, breakable, and fruitless? Do you easily fall apart? If so, your love may be grounded in the wrong soil. It may be rooted in their love (which is fickle) or in your resolve to love (which is frail). John urges us to "rely on the love God has for us". He alone is the power source.

Many people tell us to love. Only God gives us the power to do so. We know what God wants us to do. "This is what God commands...that we love each other". But how can we? How can we be kind to the vow breakers? To those who are unkind to us? How can we be patient with people who have the warmth of a vulture and the tenderness of a porcupine? How can we forgive the moneygrubbers and backstabbers we meet, love, and marry? How can we love as God loves? We want to. We long to. But how can we? By living loved.

MINISTRY NEWS*New Eucharistic Ministers

A reminder that the new Eucharistic ministers will be installed on the weekend of November 15/16 at one of the masses at either St. Anthony's or St. John's. An email was sent to each of you and an RSVP is required. Please contact me and indicate which Mass you will attend.

NEW SCHEDULES AVAILABLE ON WEBSITE

Ministers of the Word (Lectors and Commentators)

Your new missals are ready for pick up in the sacristy at both our parishes. They become effective the First Sunday of Advent. Please pick yours up after Mass.

A FEW CHANGES

From time to time, at our Sunday Masses, individuals will come forward at the distribution of Holy Communion and present a PYX to receive a consecrated host from one of the Eucharistic ministers. (The PYX is a small receptacle to carry the Blessed Sacrament.) At a recent meeting of the Eucharistic Ministers it was decided that this procedure will no longer take place. Those who wish to bring the Eucharist from Mass must, of course, be a mandated Minister of the Eucharist by Bishop Fabbro and now place the PYX on the altar before Mass and collect it following the Mass.

Our Eucharistic Ministers, in both parishes, have been instructed not to place a consecrated host in the PYX at that time, but direct you to place the PYX on the altar to be retrieved before leaving the church at the end of Mass.

If you have any questions, please speak to Fr. Rick or Betty.

The Diocese of London does not permit what is known as INTINCTION, that is, dipping the Body of Christ into the Precious Blood before consuming it. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated and once again, any questions may be directed to Fr. Rick or Betty.
