GOSPEL REFLECTION

Luke 23:35-43

As we celebrate the last Sunday of the church year, Luke's Gospel leaves us with a "holy picture" to remember and cherish. It is a crucifixion scene. Above the head of Jesus, a sign proclaims: "This is the king of the Jews". The soldiers and most of the crowd think that the sign is a bad joke, but a criminal who is hanging in a cross next to Jesus senses the truth about him. "Remember me when you enter upon your reign," He prays, and the King responds, "This day you will be with me in paradise."

Discussion Questions: "Greater love than this no one has, that he give up his life for his friend." What can you do this week to be like Christ the King in love, in forgiveness, in generosity, in works of peace and justice?

MINISTRY OR JOB?

If you are doing it because no one else will, it's a job;
 If you are doing it to serve the Lord, it's a Ministry.
 If you quit because somebody criticized you, it's a job;
 If you keep on serving anyway, it's a Ministry.
 If you'll do it as long as it doesn't interfere with your other activities; it's a job;
 If you are committed for staying with it even if it means letting go of other things, it's a Ministry.
 If you quit because no one praised or thanked you, it's a job;
 If you stay with it even though nobody recognized your efforts, it's a Ministry.
 It's hard to get excited about a job, but almost impossible not to be excited about a Ministry.
 If your concern is success, it's a job;
 If your concern is faithfulness and significance, it's a Ministry.
 An average church is filled with people doing jobs:
 A great and growing church is filled with people involved in Ministry.

"CHRISTMAS GIVING"
(ST. JOHN'S)

Every year our parish reaches out to the needy at Christmas. In the past we had the "Giving Tree" but the clothing and toys did not always match the needs. So this year, we're trying something new, we're asking you to bring in gift certificates from our local stores (Wal-mart, the Bargain Shop, Zellers, Zehrs). This will give parents the joy of shopping for their children's unique gifts. For the month of November, if you wish to donate, please place certificates in the gift box in the sanctuary or put them in the offertory basket in an envelope marked "CHRISTMAS GIVING". Thank you!
