WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

There was an error in last weekend's bulletin. World Mission Sunday will be collected next weekend, November 30th. Please read information in this weekends bulletin. Each year at this time, we are called to focus our attention on the great needs of the Church in the Developing World. This year's theme, "... all are disciples and missionaries ..." reminds all baptized Catholics of their responsibility to share in the missionary work of the Church. The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops states "every Christian shares in the mission of the Church and that all should become more involved in today's missionary work." (Ordo 2012 - 2013)

For everything there is a season.....
A time to die....Maggie Van Bauwel/Faulkner
May she rest in peace

In times of tragedy – natural disaster, war, and persecution, many people look to the Church and her missionaries for help and hope. World Mission Sunday celebrates our unity as a human family and provides an opportunity to support the life-giving presence of missionaries and of the Church among the suffering and the poor.

Our cluster parishes have always been generous in responding to this appeal for our missionaries serving throughout the world. Once again, we call upon that generosity. If you are writing a cheque, please make it out to your parish community and write Mission Sunday on the Memo line. We will accept your offerings throughout the next few weeks.

Many thanks on behalf of the missionaries throughout the world.
Fr. Rick

HELP WANTED FOR SSVP 2015 TAX CLINICS

For our 3rd year, we are preparing tax returns for people on low incomes, free of charge, and we need Tax Preparers and Greeters in March to help with this service. Training is provided and can be done online.

We helped 100 people this past March and would like to expand to teach tax preparation to those who have access to a computer, enabling them to help themselves and their families and neighbours.

If you are interested in helping us in either capacity, please call Catherine @519-980-3230 or email:

Carol at carollabutte@gmail.com to get exact dates and times.

The First Sunday of Advent is November 29/30th. As in the past, the Advent Reflection booklet: WAITING IN JOYFUL HOPE will be made available. It is a collection of daily reflections for the Advent and Christmas season by Bishop Robert Morneau, from Green Bay, Wisconsin. A popular pocket companion for the Advent season, you will want to get yours early. Once again, they are $2.00 per copy and sold on a first come first served basis. A limited quantity available for both our parishes.

The Art & Environment Committee of St. Anthony of Padua creates a beautiful, peaceful and prayerful environment to celebrate and enrich the liturgical events of our parish community.

If you are interested in helping this seasonal committee with everything from hanging banners, to arranging flowers, decorating to moving supplies, to sweeping, we can use your help. We are especially hard at work during the Advent & Christmas season and the Lent & Easter season, so join us!

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Matthew 25:31-46

Today on the Feast of Christ the King, we read that a ruler or leader should be like a shepherd. The leader is to care for all the people and protect them. And a wise and loving ruler knows that what is important for the people is equally important for their leader. In today's Gospel, the ruler is also a judge. At the last judgment, Christ is pictured as the king who judges the nations. How does He judge? On the basis of care and concern for the needy. Did you notice in the Gospel that all the people were surprised at the king's answer to their questions? How lucky we are to have Jesus tell us what they did not seem to know, that when we do for others, we do to Him, and that we will be judged on our works of mercy and justice. Take a moment to think about these works that the Gospel mentions. Ask Christ to reign and rule in your heart and in the whole world.
