FROM ST. JOHN'S CHOIR LOFT

Dear Parishioners:

We enjoy learning new songs that are not in our hymnals. I record these with the music and have begun to add my voice to the recordings so the choir can practice while away from church. I will be posting these on Youtube if you would like to learn them along with us. They are at Youtube.com and do a search for the 77thkey. If you have special requests you would like played, please call the office and I will try to accommodate your wishes.

We are always on the lookout for new voices to add to our wonderful group of dedicated singers and welcome newcomers interested in "lofty" pursuits.

God bless, Greg Jolicoeur

FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING

REDEFINING KINGSHIP

This last Sunday of the Church's liturgical year is dedicated to Christ, our King. In the first reading, from the second book of Samuel, we meet Jesus' ancestor David, the greatest king of Israel. This passage describes a glorious monarch who is acclaimed by all the tribes of Israel. He is called both a "shepherd" and a "commander." The second reading, from Paul's Letter to the Colossians, also contains glorious language, describing Christ as "the firstborn of all creation." Only at the end of this passage do we hear a hint of the paradox we will meet in today's Gospel: Christ the King makes "peace by the blood of His cross."

Arise Season 5- Called to be Good News

Week 5 "Many the Gifts". Each one of us has received a gift from the Holy Spirit to use to serve one another. Are we open and welcoming, not only in Church, but in our homes, and in our daily lives? In our Invitation to Act, we are invited to look at our everyday lives, do we see the opportunities to support another's faith, to share faith and to help build up Jesus' kingdom in our homes, workplaces, among our neighbours and friends? Find out what is being offered as workshops within our Diocese for Evangelization. We are also invited to go out of our way at Church to introduce ourselves to someone we don't know. Lastly, listen to the words that are prayed over the gifts at Mass, pay attention to the actions, lifted in offering, broken to be shared. Meditate on Communion as God returning our gifts to us, now strengthened with the power of the Spirit so that we may continue the mission of Christ.
