GOSPEL REFLECTION

John 18: 33b-37

What kind of king is Jesus? In this reading from the passion story in John's Gospel, Jesus provides us with His own answer. Pontius Pilate was the Roman official who held power in Palestine. He asks Jesus if He is the king of the Jews. Pilate really wants to know whether Jesus might be a part of a Jewish revolt against Roman rule. Jesus assures Pilate that His kingdom is not of this world. He is not one who rules by force. However He is a king who came into the world to "testify to the truth". All who recognize Him as "the way and the truth and the life" will hear His voice. (John 14:6)

As the Church year comes to a close, we are grateful for the ways in which we have heard our King's voice in the liturgy this year. We consider how to live the words of Jesus more faithfully as the circle of the new liturgical year begins.

Discussion Questions: What are some of the ways you can show that you are committed to Jesus as the way, the truth, and the life? How can you give evidence that Jesus rules in your life?

ARISE

Called to life giving love was the theme in week 4. We are called to live faithfully, to give life and to grow mutually. If we model how we treat our relationships with people in the same way we are to be in marriage, we can accomplish these three basic ideas:

1. Faithfulness-in marriage, we weather the storm, in the good times and bad. In life, we need to do the same thing with people.
2. Giving Life-in marriage, we make a promise to grow with each other. In life, it's the way we contribute to the community and Church.
3. Growing in Mutuality-Marriage is a partnership, we do it together, it is about support. WE are also in a partnership with people. We need to be respectful of our differences and grow together.
