ADVENT-Waiting for the Lord

This weekend, we begin a new liturgical year with the celebration of the First Sunday of Advent. We are in a time of "waiting". Waiting for what? This is somewhat of a simple question with some simple answers: Christmas presents, baking, festive family and friend gatherings, etc. As Christians we will add, waiting to celebrate the birth of Christ. And we also await His return at the end of time when His kingdom will be revealed.

But, you ask, did He not already come? Yes, He did and that's what we have been celebrating on Christmas for the past 2000 years.

Advent is not about something that happened long ago or only about something that will happen sometime in the future, for Jesus comes to us right now. He comes to us as often as we will open our hearts to receive Him. So, as we countdown the days to December 25th and patiently await His return in glory, let us not wait to invite Him into our hearts and homes today- let's do it right now. ~ Fr. Rick SSVP Kingsville wants to thank all those who have participated in the "Bag It to Eliminate Hunger" program. Through this, we are receiving increased food donations to help re-stock our pantry. Please consider using these bags (available at church entrances) to make regular contributions to our ever growing and continuous need to feed the hungry. God bless you for helping us do Christ's work on earth, right here in Kingsville.

Thank you. ~ Mike, President of Society of Saint Vincent de Paul, St. John de Brebeuf Conference, Kingsville, ON
