ST. JOHN DE BREBEUF PARISH
AUTUMN-DUST-OFF!

We are going to clean up and polish the inside of the church! Our KofC cleaned up the overgrown vegetation outside, and now it's our turn to do this inside. We will clean and polish all the pews, all the woodwork, the windows and the Stations of the Cross. Come join us for this parish community effort on Saturday, November 10th starting at 9:00 am and ending with a light lunch at 11:30 am sponsored by the good cooks of St. John's CWL. Bring a pail and everything else will be provided. This is OUR church and WE are making it better! Please RSVP by calling the office @733-6591 by this Tuesday, November 6th.

GOD GETS INTO OUR LIVES

I do not live anymore-it is Christ who lives in me.
Galatians 2:20

You have leaves to rake. A steering wheel to grip. A neighbour's hand to shake. Simply put, you have things to do. So does God. Babies need hugs. Children need good-night tucks. AIDS orphans need homes. Stressed-out executives need hope. God has work to do. And He uses our hands to do it. What the hand is to the glove, the Spirit is to the Christian...God gets into us. At times, imperceptibly. Other times, disruptively. God gets His fingers into our lives, inch by inch reclaiming the territory that is rightfully His. Your tongue. He claims it for His message. Your feet. He requisitions them for His purpose. Your mind? He made it and intends to use it for His glory. Your eyes, face, and hands? Through them He will weep, smile and touch.

Come thirsty

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Mark 12: 28-34

In this reading, Jesus is asked to name “the first of all the commandments.” In the first part of His reply, Jesus quotes the words from today’s Gospel: “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.” Then Jesus adds another commandment from Leviticus 19:18: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” Jesus made the two commandments one. We now call this the Great Commandment. Loving God and loving neighbor cannot be separated. We love God by loving our neighbor as we love ourselves. The proof and measure of how we love God is shown in how much we love others.

Discussion Questions: Name some ways or times that loving others is a joyful experience. Name some ways or times that loving others can cost us time, effort, and inconvenience.

RECONCILIATION

Thank you to the parents/grandparents who came to St. John’s last Tuesday, October 23 to register their children for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. In total, we have 56 children registered to date. If you are interested in having your child celebrate this Sacrament, it is not too late to register. Our deadline for registration is Friday, Nov. 9th.

Registration forms were sent home with all the children in Grade 2, however forms are available in the church, from the parish office, or on our website. Please pray for the children and their families as they prepare for this Sacrament of God’s love and forgiveness. Website:

ARISE

Your prayers are working....Thank You! We began our journey by realizing our gifts and talents and challenging ourselves to share them with others through our community and parish, following in the footsteps of Christ. Please continue to pray for the Arise program and its participants, and as always, be assured of our prayers for you.

Did you know? 38 people offered to pray the Rosary daily, 42 people offered to keep Arise in their daily intercessions, 17 people offered to meditate daily on Scripture for 10 minutes.
