WE ARE FAMILY

Be devoted to one another in brotherly love
Romans 12:10

Common belief identifies members of God's family and common affection unites them. Paul gives this relationship rule for the church: "Be devoted to one another in brotherly love." The apostle plays the wordsmith here, bookending the verse with fraternal-twin terms. He begins with philostorgos (philos means friendly; storgos means family love) and concludes with philadelphia (phileo means tender affectin; adelphia means brethren.) An awkward but accurate translation of the verse might be "have a friend/family devotion to each other in a friend/family sort of way/" If Paul doesn't get us with the first adjective, he catches us with the second. In both he reminds us; the church is God's family. You didn't pick me. I didn't pick you. You may not like me, I may not like you. But since God picked and likes us both, we are family.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Matthew 21:33-43

Jesus compares God to a vineyard owner whose messengers go to the tenants of the vineyard to collect his share of the grapes at harvest time, but the tenants beat, stone, or murder the owner's messengers. When the owner sends his son, the tenants treat him as they did the messenger. They kill the son, hoping to keep the vineyard, his inheritance, for themselves. The son in the parable is Jesus, of course, and the messengers are God's prophets, who speak in God's name. Jesus is reminding us that the kingdom will be taken away from those who do not give God a harvest of good works.

Discussion Questions: Can you find the scriptures that Jesus quotes while telling this parable? Name the people and things that were rejected in this parable.

Every Tuesday-Divine Mercy 3pm in the Fr. Doll Room

PRAYER COMMITMENT SUNDAY

This week we have an opportunity to sign up in a special way to commit ourselves to prayer for the duration of Arise.

For some of us this may include something as simple as including Arise in our intentions during our regular prayer. For others it may be saying the rosary specifically for the success of Arise or to fast. Whatever you choose to do, know that prayers are an essential part of the process and we rely on them to uplift and encourage us and intercede for us. Please be sure to sign up in this special way. Forms will be at the back of the church for the duration of Arise.
