GOSPEL REFLECTION

Luke 17:5-10

The two sayings of Jesus in today's Gospel make us wonder about the other side of the story. When the apostles ask, "Increase our faith," are they secretly quite satisfied with their record of faithfulness? Jesus tells them that if they really have faith they can tell a tree what to do, and it will do it! The story about the servant tells us that Jesus' disciples should be grateful to God. When we do God's will, we should not expect to receive a gold medal. WE have, after all, done no more than "what we were obliged to do."

Discussion Questions: What is your attitude toward the next good thing asked of you? Is it to stand around and quibble about it? Or do you say, "I'll get it! I'll do it! I'm on it!" All Jesus asks is that we love one another, not that we just stand around talking about loving one another! Pray together: Lord, increase our faith and trust in you. May our faith and trust move us to action, not just talk. Amen.

THE ROSARY ENCIRCLES ALL:

The rosary is the most familiar of devotions, but nowadays many people think its sentimental, repetitive, boring. It is assumed to be part of the old-fashioned church furniture that has to be discarded.

In fact, the rosary is simply a summary of the mysteries of redemption, from the message of the angel at the beginning to the final glory of the saints in heaven and we think about these mysteries with Mary to help us. After all, it is only because Jesus Christ took human flesh of Mary that we can hope for heaven at all. It is because Mary said "Yes" to the angels' greeting that we can say, with her Son, "Our Father."

People sometimes find formal methods of prayer a hindrance rather than a help. They want to be able to pray to God without stiff structures that confine their freedom. But the method of the rosary, which is of course not the only method, provides us, when we are distracted or tired, with something to hold on to.

The words we use are God's words, the mysteries we remember are the very foundation of our faith and even the familiar feel of the beads as they slip through our fingers can remind us that we aren't angels. We need the help of material things, for God has made them, too, a way of holiness, part of the total giving of ourselves, body and soul to God. We live in the present but we remember the past and look to a future still to come. As we pray, here and now for ourselves, for those we love, for our enemies, we remember that it is the prayer of Jesus Christ Himself in which we share. Somehow, mysteriously, all that He did for us—in dying on the cross for us, in rising from the dead for us, goes on being done for us. That is what the Mass tells us; that is what the mysteries of the rosary tell us.

Since the month of October is dedicated, at least in part, to the Rosary, we are invited to honor Our Lady of the Rosary by its daily use.

THANKSGIVING APPEAL

With our Canadian Thanksgiving weekend approaching, it's time to reflect on all the gifts we have been given and to keep in mind those less fortunate than us. In gratitude for the gifts we have been given, we're encouraged to be generous and give back. It is also at this time of the year I come to you with our Thanksgiving Appeal. We have provided a brochure describing the details of the Appeal and how your gift will help your parish in its local ministry, as well as its commitments beyond our parish.

Please reflect on God's gifts to you. He has given you all that you have. Your gifts to your parish are given in gratitude for the continuing gifts that God gives you.

Sometimes it's difficult to envision how one donation can help but each donation makes a difference because of all the other parishioners who donate. The gifts of many enable our parish to deliver needed ministries and services.

We thank you for your regular financial support to our parish. Please consider carefully and prayerfully how you might "give back" through this year's Thanksgiving Appeal. Let us bring hope and change lives—together.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Rick

Congratulations and prayerful best wishes to:

Ken & Joan Ives of St. Anthony's celebrating their "50th" Wedding Anniversary

May God continue to bless and strengthen you as you live out your Sacrament

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE!

Once while on a drive, my wife and I had a terrible argument. After many miles of silence with my wife driving, I glanced at the fuel indicator which was close to empty. I couldn't resist breaking the ice with a jab about her forgetting to fill up the tank. I leaned over and whispered: "low fuel, Karen". She turned to me with tears in her eyes as she pulled over and stopped, hugged my neck and said, "Oh, I love you too Bob. I just wanted you to say it first."

The fight ended right there!
