FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

This Wednesday is All Souls day and throughout the month of November, we are invited to remember all our deceased relatives and friends in a special way. On Wednesday, Nov. 2 at St. John's at 7pm in Kingsville, I invite all parishioners from our cluster parishes to join me in celebrating the Eucharist to commemorate the death of your loved one(s). At this Mass, in the prayers of the faithful, I will especially make mention of those whose funeral Mass or service I officiated at since last All Souls Day. You are also invited to inscribe the names of your deceased in the Book of Life found at both parishes. Special remembrance for all of the dead will be offered throughout the month of November.

We look forward to seeing you this Wednesday, Nov. 2 at 7pm at St. John's.

Reminder for next weekend "EST" Eastern Standard Time will return on Sunday Nov. 6 th. Move your clocks back one hour Saturday night.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Matthew 23:1-12

Today's Gospel reminds us that the good example of one person can have far reaching effects. The advice Jesus gives is that our lives—not just our words—should bring the good news to others. In other words, we should practice what we preach. When we fail to do this, we rob our beliefs of their power to affect others. Think of the early Christian martyrs whose example of faith led other to Christ.

Discussion Questions: What does it mean when Jesus says about the religious leaders of his day "their words are bold but their deeds are few?" Recall people in your own life who have brought you closer to God? What does Jesus say about service? About humility? How will you act so that your life can be a message of faith to everyone you meet?

Thanks to everyone who helped with the Milk Bag to Mats project, those who worked on the mats and those who donated bags. It has been a very successful act of charity.

Please note: Milk Bags will no longer be collected at St. John's.

Well done, good and faithful servant

MORE THAN FAMILY

If similar experiences create friendships, shouldn't the church overflow with friendships? With whom do you have more in common than with fellow believers? Amazed by the same manger stirred by the same Bible, saved by the same cross, and destined for the same home. Can you not echo the words of the psalmist? "I am a friend to everyone who fears you, to anyone who obeys your orders." (Ps. 119:63)

The Church—more than family, we are friends. More than friends, we are family, God's family of friends.

ARISE PRAYER

Gracious God and Father, we enter into your presence realizing you know us better than we know ourselves. You call us to holiness and we trust you to lead us together on our journey to be a renewed Church, for with you all things are possible. Create us anew in Jesus Christ your Son. Liberate us from all that keeps us from you. Heal us from every form of sin and violence. Transform us to live your Word more profoundly. Awaken us to the sacred; rebuild trust among us. Enliven our parishes; reunite our families. May your Holy Spirit empower us to live as a community of love, freed to share in your work of recreating our world and restoring justice. We believe you are doing something new, calling us to arise together in Christ to celebrate the fullness of life. Amen.
