GOD IS WITH US

The book of Wisdom tells us that the spirit of God is in all things. What a wonderful thought, and what a wonderful image to keep in front of us as we travel down life's road. For if the path is revealed in the treading, it's good to know that God is with us—and all around us—every step of the way.

But Paul knows that this divine presence is not timid. Instead, God calls out to us, and Paul prays that we, along with the Thessalonians, might be made worthy of that call. And who knows more about God's call than Zacchaeus, the tax collector? Jesus called him out of a tree, for goodness' sake. Or perhaps more correctly, as we reflect upon the end of today's Gospel reading, for heaven's sake.

NOVEMBER, MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS

All Souls' Day (Nov. 2) is a Roman Catholic day of remembrance for friends and loved ones who have died. This comes from the ancient Pagan Festival of the Dead, which celebrated the Pagan belief that the souls of the dead would return for a meal with the family. Candles in the window would guide the soul's back home, and another place was set at the table. The day purposely follows All Saints' Day in order to shift the focus from those in heaven to those in purgatory. It is celebrated with Masses and festivities in honour of the dead. While the Feast of All Saints is a day to remember the glories of Heaven and those there, the Feast of All Soul's reminds us of our obligation to live holy lives and that there will be purification of the souls of those destined for heaven. Upon death, it is believed that souls have not yet been cleansed of sin. Praying for souls of loved ones helps to remove the stain of sin, and allow the souls to enter the kingdom of heaven. Through prayer and good works, living members of the Church may help their departed family and friends. All Souls' Day is a time when families fondly remember their deceased loved ones. Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, may perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace.

A special Mass will be celebrated THIS Wednesday, November 2nd at 7pm at St. John de Brebeuf Church in Kingsville. The Mass will be celebrated for all those whose funeral Mass or service I celebrated since last All Soul's Day, with their names being mentioned in the Prayers of the Faithful. ALL our dead will be remembered as well. Following Mass you are invited to inscribe the names of your deceased in our BOOK OF LIFE which will be found in the sanctuary of both parishes. Thus, each day Mass is celebrated, they will have a special remembrance. We look forward to having all our parishioners join us for this special Mass as we pray for our deceased relatives and friends.
