BEARING THE RIGHT KIND OF FRUIT

Today's readings focus our attention on vineyards. Isaiah's song concerning his friend's vineyard begins with inspiring and poetic images of an idyllic vineyard where the choicest harvest is expected. Instead, the vineyard yields wild grapes, which causes the owner to abandon it. The psalmist cries out to God, asking that God once again take care of the vineyard, which is the house of Israel. The parable told in today's Gospel offers a stern warning that those who commit treachery in the hopes of attaining personal wealth will be "put . . . to a wretched death" (Matthew 21:41). Jesus warns his listeners not to act like the murderous tenants in the vineyard. Instead he exhorts them to produce the kind of fruit that will lead them to the kingdom of God.

THE GREAT AMEN

Catholics say the word “Amen” a lot. We say it at the end of prayers, often after we make the sign of the cross and when we receive communion. In the Mass, there is one Amen that we call the Great Amen. This is usually sung together by the congregation at the end of the Eucharistic Prayer. The priest elevates the host and the chalice and says or sings, “Through him, and with him, and in him. O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honour is yours, forever and ever.” And the congregation responds with the Great Amen. Amen is one of just two Hebrew words that we still use in the Mass. (the other is Alleluia). The word has a number of different meanings. Jesus often said, “Amen, amen, I say to you...” In this case it means “truly”. When we receive the Body of Christ, we say “Amen” to mean “I believe.” And in the Great Amen it takes on the added meaning of “Yes!” The ancient Jews used “Amen” when they swore an oath. It was not to be used flippantly or taken lightly. And so it should be for Catholics, as in the Great Amen we give it all its nuanced meanings. “Yes! Truly, I believe!”
