GOSPEL REFLECTION

Matthew 18:15-20

One of the ways Christians show their love for one another is to offer guidance and correction. Jesus expects His disciples to be "watchers," as Ezekiel was. When a member of the community seriously sins against them, they are to speak about it to that person in private. If the sinner refuses to listen, two or three disciples are to offer correction and if that fails, the entire community should call the sinner to repent. The voice of the Christian community is to be taken seriously, Jesus gives us this assurance: "Where two or three are gathered in my name, there I am in their midst." How do you think correcting someone can be a sign of love? Are you willing to do it?
