GOSPEL REFLECTION

Luke 14:25-33

Jesus is on his way to Jerusalem when He stops to give this no-nonsense talk to a great crowd of people who want to follow Him. Like any rabbi of His time, Jesus uses exaggeration to command attention. He wants to get the point across that He must be at the center of His followers' lives. Jesus insists that no one can be His disciple who does not consider Him before family or self. The disciple who thinks he or she can serve Jesus part-time is foolish. She is like a builder who has no idea how much it will cost to complete a tower. He is like a king who goes to battle with no idea how many troops his enemy has. The disciple must be willing to renounce or give up everything out of love for Christ.

Discussion Question: According to the customs of the time, Philemon had the legal right to punish Onesimus, who was his "property." But Paul spoke up for Onesimus and helped him. Can you speak up for people who are being treated badly and need help? How?

It's a simple method of Christ-centered silent prayer, a renewal of an ancient Christian contemplative practice, updated for our time. Doll Room at St. John's church. Please bring a bag lunch-beverages provided. Suggested donation of $20.00.

EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS TO HOMES AND THE HOMEBOUND

Back in June, you may recall, I made a plea for more Eucharistic Ministers to bring the Eucharist to our Nursing homes and homebound. I indicated that those presently involved in this ministry were so few that they were being scheduled every other week. A number of them take the summer months off and others have retired from the ministry. It would be a shame to have to cease bringing the Eucharist to these individuals every week, but if a significant number of volunteers are not available, this will be the case. Following my announcement at Mass I said I would put the call out again before September, as a new schedule will be made for October. A number of people expressed willingness to help but I ask that they contact the office when they read this request. So, once again, those willing to serve in this ministry or to be Eucharistic Ministers in the church, please contact the office no later than September 12th so a suitable schedule can be made and the required police checks can be initiated. Thank you for considering this important and rewarding ministry.

Fr. Rick
