From the Pastor's Desk:

Holy Week is here! The journey of Lent comes to its climactic end this week. Passion Sunday is celebrated a week before Easter Sunday, and reminds us of the sacrifice of Jesus.

We listen to the events that led to Christ's death as the Church invites us to immerse ourselves into Christ's death, so that we may rise with Him on the third day. On Monday all priests will gather with our Bishop at the Cathedral of Christ the King in Hamilton to celebrate the Chrism Mass. Priests will renew their promises before the Bishop, and oils will be blessed and distributed to all parishes for use in the sacramental ministry for the upcoming year. On Thursday we will recall and celebrate the institution of the sacraments of the Eucharist and the Priesthood with the Mass of the Last Supper at 7pm. On Good Friday we will honour Christ's death with Liturgies of Christ's Passion at 3pm, and Stations of the Cross at 7pm. On Holy Saturday we will decorate our churches and bless Easter food, and in the evening at 7pm we will celebrate the Easter Vigil Mass. Paschal candles will be blessed at this Mass and returned to all of our churches. We will also receive six adults into the Catholic Faith during this solemn Mass. Easter Sunday Masses will be celebrated throughout our parish with the focus on God's victory over death and sin. Please refer to the Holy Week schedule of liturgies and join us.

We welcome Fr. Ray Jackson who has arrived to spend a few weeks with us. Fr. Ray is a good friend to many of us, and at the age of 91 he continues to serve the Lord and His Church. Having grown up in Owen Sound Fr. Ray likes to visit a few times a year. After many years of serving as a Basilian priest in Mexico, Fr. Ray now lives in a retirement home for Basilians in Toronto. We are blessed by his presence and faithful example.

Fr. Wojtek Kuzma

A Seminarian's Thoughts:

The first year of seminary is what we call the Spiritual Year. Rather than plunging the men entering directly into studies, the idea is to give them a year focussed on the essentials: prayer and discernment. A man may have philosophy and theology degrees, but that is not going to make him a good priest. Without a deep and consistent prayer life, a priest will get himself into trouble sooner or later.

We were taught the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits and one of the great spiritual masters. Every day we did a holy hour of Ignatian meditation, and every week we would meet with a spiritual director trained in the Exercises to review how our prayer was developing.

We also did charitable work. Each of us was assigned an apostolate where we would volunteer once a week. I was tasked with helping out at the Good Shepherd Centre in downtown Toronto. It was a fantastic experience. The Centre was a soup kitchen and a homeless shelter, and we had a clothing room downstairs where'd we hand out whatever clothing the men needed. In January we spent a whole month of immersion working at our apostolate. In my case, I lived with the brothers who ran the Centre and worked there six days a week.

We also had the blessing that year of travelling to the Holy Land for twelve days. We had been meditating everyday on the life of Our Lord in our daily meditation—now it would be brought to life. We walked in the same places where Our Saviour had walked, we saw where he preached, where he ate, where he died and was buried. It was a life-changing trip, and one I won't soon forget.
