From the Pastor's Desk:

 The Gift of Lent - We begin the holy season of Lent. You may be wondering what is so holy about Lent. Is it not a time of giving things up and repenting in “dust and ashes”? Yes, it is true that Lent is a season in the church that is focused on penance. In other words, Lent invites us to put our spiritual life into a higher gear and work a bit harder at it. The holiness of Lent stems from the opportunity and the invitation for each one of us to become a little bit holier. In other words, through a bit more work we are hoping to experience growth in our relationship with God. This season is holy because it invites us to renew our commitment to holiness, goodness, and faith. During Lent we are invited to honour the suffering of Jesus by praying Stations of the Cross. This ancient meditation on the passion of Jesus continues to this day. At St. Mary’s in Owen Sound we offer this beautiful devotion every Friday of Lent at 7pm. I would love it if each one of our mission churches gathered together on Fridays of Lent to pray Stations of the Cross. Perhaps a few people from each of our churches could come together and offer this as an opportunity for their church community. It doesn’t have to be at 7pm, and it doesn’t even have to be on Friday. I wish Fr. James and I could find a way to lead this prayer in each of our churches, but at this time we are not able to do that. Please consider helping us by offering to organize it in your own church. May our season of Lent truly be a holy season for all.

Fr. Wojtek Kuzma

A Seminarian's Thoughts:

Imagine Owen Sound saloons circa 1919, pre-Prohibition, and you might get the picture of what tree-planting camp was like. The alcohol flowed freely every night. The school buses we used for transportation were hot boxed with marijuana morning and evening, on the way to work and returning. The weekends saw the arrival of small-town prostitutes, accompanied with drinking games, strip poker, and orgies. The picture is clear—this is as far from a pious, Christian atmosphere as you can get. And here were the five of us from Our Lady Seat of Wisdom Academy—all devout, believing Catholics thrust into this hedonist debauch-fest of unmitigated revelry. Yet we had a glorious summer. We mostly kept away from the nighttime carousing. But in the more sober hours of an occasional day-off, we would hang around the cabins and the camp fires and socialize. We didn’t hide who we were; we were quite frank with the other planters. They came to realize we were different, and they sincerely respected that. It was a novel experience for them—five young men, serious Christians, yet normal guys and hard workers to boot. We had all kinds of conversations and debates: about Catholicism, about morality and homosexuality and going to church and praying the rosary, you name it. But our witness was the most important reality. They knew we went to Mass on Sunday. They knew we didn’t get drunk. They knew we didn’t swear and we didn’t smoke up. I can’t say we converted any of them or even changed any hearts. But we did our best to preach the Gospel to them in the small ways we could. Of the five of us, two are now priests in Pembroke and St. Catharines, I am a seminarian, and one is a monk at a monastery in Wisconsin.

One Heart, One Soul campaign nears kickoff - Months of preparations are leading us to the next step of the One Heart, One Soul Campaign for the Diocese of Hamilton. A public kickoff

Mass will be held at noon on Monday, March 25, Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord, at the Cathedral Basilica of Christ the King. The Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Douglas Crosby, OMI, and followed by a reception at the Cathedral. The campaign's Pilot Wave parishes will be holding kickoffs for their own efforts in April. Three additional waves over the next two years will allow every Parish in the Diocese to participate. Most of the funds from the three-year campaign will go to Parish projects, with a special emphasis on the Parishes most in need. A number of diocesan ministries will benefit as well. A series of Frequently Asked Questions about the campaign can be found on the campaign website – www.oneheartonesoul.ca.
